From the Vicarage

Dear Friends,

Happy Easter for when it comes on Sunday 20th April.

Until then, we continue our Lenten journey with our Lent course, Living Hope with times in this magazine, and this year's Lent Appeal is supporting the Christian charity Housing Justice in their work across England and Wales to alleviate homelessness.

These projects are: Citadel is a volunteer-led homelessness prevention project run by Housing Justice which supports people experiencing, or at risk of homelessness, to find and/or sustain their tenancies and establish a home.

Housing Justice also operates a Lodgings Programme for newly-granted refugees while they find a job and more permanent accommodation. Faith in Affordable Housing Justice works with churches of all denominations to release surplus land and redundant buildings for the creation of new truly affordable housing. The Winter Night Shelter Network Housing Justice has helped over 1,000 churches to respond to homelessness in their local area by supporting them to set up and operate a winter night shelter for people who would otherwise be rough sleeping. With an estimated 3,898 people sleeping rough each night in England and homelessness and rough sleeping on the rise, the work of faith and community projects like those run by Housing Justice are vital. Without this work, it's estimated the rough sleeper count would be 22% higher.

Making a donation We welcome donations from individuals and churches as well as other groups and organisations. Donations can be made online or by bank transfer. If you would like to make a donation to The Bishop of Chelmsford's Lent Appeal by bank transfer, please use the following details: Chelmsford Diocese Board of Finance Barclays Bank Sort Code: 20-20-35 Account Number: 60269603 Reference: Lent Appeal 25 Donations will be accepted until 1 July 2025.

Looking ahead to Easter, I hope you will be able to join us for the Easter celebrations, including our Maundy Thursday service on Thursday 17th April, at St Nicholas Church in Tillingham at 7pm, and our Good Friday Walk to the Chapel and service, on Friday 18th April, which begins at St Thomas Church in Bradwell at 12.45 and at St Peter's Chapel in Bradwell at 2pm.

Details of all our services are in this magazine, but we welcome the Bishop of Chelmsford, Rt Revd Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani to our sunrise service at 6am on Easter Sunday 20th April, at St Peter's Chapel in Bradwell, as we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ and the hope this brings to us.

We have been thinking about the theme of 'Hope' in our Lent groups, looking at the different reflections on topics such as 'Seeds of Unity', 'A beautiful and messy awakening', Kingdom, faiths and diplomacy', 'A vision for hope in politics', 'Wild paths of peace' and 'Hope in suffering'.

As we met to discuss these different reflections, we looked forward to the Easter Hope of the resurrection, which brings to us God new life and forgiveness in Jesus, so that we can move forward in Hope in our lives.

God bless,

Reverend Steven

Lent Course 2025

This Lent we are encouraged to put down deep roots of hope by connecting with God who is with us at all times. God invites us to bring to him our own journey through everyday life. In the disappointment of daily setbacks and the pain of deeper hurts, we discover that God is present with us. And God promises a future where all things are healed and made new. Living Hope offers us the opportunity to deepen our hope in God and be part of what God is doing to bring hope in the world. The course is based on the book by Cathrine Fungai Ngangira and Belle Tindall – *Wild Bright Hope: The Big Church Read Lent Book 2025* (SPCK).

The course will run on the following days:-

Week 4 Canceled

Thursday 3rd April at 7pm at Dengie Village Hall

Week 5

Wednesday 9th April at 7pm at St Lawrence Church Centre

Week 6

Wednesday 16th April at 7pm at St Thomas Church in Bradwell

Wednesday 12th February at the Village Hall

A Blooming Good Evening with Jane and Janet

Our March meeting was a vibrant and entertaining evening as we welcomed two wonderful guests, Jane Cowell and Janet Thorogood, with their demonstration, 'Spring Ideas with Flowers.'

From the moment they started, Jane and Janet had us all laughing with their hilarious anecdotes, proving that flower arranging isn't just about the end result— it's about enjoying the process too! Their lively banter and practical tips made for an evening full of entertainment and inspiration.

Using supermarket flowers such as roses, tulips, daffodils, and fuchsias, alongside foraged foliage like olive branches, moss, and conifers, they created stunning arrangements with ease. They also shared a great insider tip—supermarket car parks can be a surprisingly good source of foliage, as long as you have permission!

At the end of the evening, the beautiful arrangements were raffled off, much to the delight of our lucky winners. Jane and Janet's parting advice? Just have a go! It was a fantastic evening, and we can't wait to see what our next meeting brings!

Our next meeting is on the 9th of April in the village hall, where we will be joined by Rob and Sonia from TEMPRD Chocolate in Maldon!

New members are always welcome; there is just a small fee of £5 for non-members, so please feel free to come along! If you have any questions about what we get up to, you can contact Sue Pirret on 07824696807 or

The Othona Community.

The next few months will be a time of change at the Othona Community. The current Wardens, Richard and Debbie Sanders, will leave at the end of May and be replaced by new people bringing fresh ideas and enthusiasm. This has always been the case at the Community here and has enabled growth and new ideas to flourish whilst still retaining the ethos of the community that was envisaged by our founder Norman Motley in 1946.

An essential part of the Community are the volunteers that willingly give their time and effort to keep the place running enabling us to run very affordable breaks for families and those who struggle to afford time away. Some volunteers live locally and very kindly come here on a regular basis to help in the gardens, the kitchen and even with cleaning, others come to stay residentially either for a specific event or period of time. We regularly have European volunteers for 6 months and had two French volunteers last year. It is a real pleasure to have this ever-changing community of volunteers and core team, and we value their help immensely. The hope is that their time here is also of benefit to them and thankfully that is often the case. We currently have Debbie with us, who kindly wrote this piece about her time here:

I have been a volunteer at Othona since early January and it's the first time I've ever lived in a community. Currently moving from France back to my home town of Bromley, Kent I had three quiet months ahead and seized the opportunity to spend a few reflective weeks here in beautiful Bradwell-on-Sea.

In early January it was freezing cold but the sun shone and the landscape was sparkling and stunning in the frost. I never knew this part of Essex was so isolated and beautiful so it's been a great discovery. The hugely tidal Blackwater Estuary changes every time I wander from the community to the beach. I love to check how much of the concrete boats I can see from the sea wall and am amazed at how sometimes they look stranded in the mud and at other times almost completely hidden by the sea.

The natural environment around Othona is a source of great joy as spring arrives and, after the arrival of the pure white snowdrops we are seeing daffodils, primroses, purple violets and many other early flowers emerging from their winter hibernation. Nature provides new surprises every day and it's wonderful being with people who love and appreciate the natural world as much as I do.

.As the sunrise gets earlier the birdsong and cooing of wood-pigeons makes it easier to wake up and feel inspired for the day. I observe our community bird-feeder as I eat breakfast and marvel at how many birds we see, big and small and how quickly they get through the fat balls, nuts and seeds we put out. Sometimes the muntjac deer come on to our lawns to graze and we see pheasants and rabbits cross our path. Just 10 minutes relaxing on our terrace reveals so much wildlife and natural wonders.

I'm very sorry I cannot stay here to enjoy all the different seasons but will certainly be drawn back to visit Othona in the near future.

We always appreciate offers of help from local volunteers, if you have time to spare and a willingness to help with gardening, maintenance, cooking or cleaning then please get in touch (bradwell@othona.org)

We have an exciting programme coming up in April :

Prayer for April 2025

Living Lord Jesus, We, your Easter People of today, thank You for the Easter People of the Gospel accounts.

For the women, who loved You so much that they went to the tomb, early in the morning, while it was still dark. Thank you especially for Mary, who wept, then rejoiced, then ran to tell the others, "I have seen the Lord!"

Thank you for Thomas, who doubted, then devoted his life to You, his Lord and his God; for the disciples who ate breakfast on the beach with You; for Peter, who was forgiven and re-commissioned by You.

Thank You for them and Your witnesses through all generations. Thank you for Your true and living written Word, proclaiming You, our true and living Lord, who lived and died and rose again to offer us forgiveness and life.

Thank you, Lord that because You live, we have hope and assurance, whatever challenges the world might bring.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again. Hallelujah!

News from RAF Bradwell Bay

We are striving towards building our new website, which will be much more information led. We have a new Facebook page RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group, all posts must be approved to keep the relevance to RAF Bradwell Bay.

Currently, as discussed last month our planning is going towards the commemoration of the end of WW2, the end of the war was celebrated on 8th May 1945. National celebrations will take place, including a nationwide ringing of church bells across the country at 6.30pm.

It does surprise how few people realise the significance of the bells. The ringing of church bells was banned during the war. The bells warned of the country being invaded and so alerting citizens and civil defence of the invasion. You may remember an episode of Dad's Army when the church bells were rung, and Corporal Jones was panicking while shouting Don't Panic the Germans are here! Ringing of the church bells in towns and villages will play a significant part of the national celebrations.

The operational record books of both the RAF Bradwell Bay station and the Squadrons based there at the time, talk of celebrations going on. I can't believe that our intrepid RAF Personnel imbibed in an excess of alcohol, but the orbs seem to be sympathetic to people being a little below par following the celebrations. On VE Day celebrations were held throughout the day. A Thanksgiving Service was attended by the whole station, at which the Station Commander gave a short address describing the meaning of VE Day. The rest of the day was regarded as a holiday and in the evening, an all-ranks dance was held which was attended by most of the Station. Free drinks and refreshments were provided by P.S.I. and Mess Funds.

VE Day Parade at RAF Bradwell Bay

We are holding a VE Day cockney party at the Green Man on 9th May - watch our Facebook page RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group for details and of other events going on.

The RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group seeks to preserve the history of the RAF in Bradwell on Sea. We are planning for a museum near the memorial.

23rd April: St George, our Patron Saint who isn't English

The English have a patron saint who isn't English, about whom next to nothing is known for sure, and who, just possibly, may not have existed at all. But that didn't stop St George being patriotically invoked in many battles, notably at Agincourt and in the Crusades, and of course it is his cross that adorns the flags of English football fans to this day.

It's most likely that St George was a soldier, a Christian who was martyred for his faith somewhere in Palestine, possibly at Lydda, in the early fourth century. At some point in the early centuries of the Church he became associated with wider military concerns, being regarded as the patron saint of the Byzantine armies. There is no doubt that St George was held as an example of the 'godly soldier', one who served Christ as bravely and truly as he served his king and country.

The story of George and the dragon is of much later date and no one seems to know where it comes from. By the Middle Ages, when George was being honoured in stained glass, the dragon had become an invaluable and invariable visual element, so that for most people the two are inseparable. Pub signs have a lot to answer for here: 'The George and Dragon'.

However, it's probably more profitable to concentrate on his role as a man who witnessed to his faith in the difficult setting of military service, and in the end was martyred for his faithfulness to Christ.

The idea of the 'Christian soldier' was, of course, much loved by the Victorian hymn-writers - 'Onward, Christian soldiers!' The soldier needs discipline. The heart of his commitment is to obedience. The battle cannot be avoided nor the enemy appeased. He marches and fights alongside others, and he is loyal to his comrades. In the end, if the battle is won, he receives the garlands of victory, the final reward of those who overcome evil.

St George's Day presents a challenge and an opportunity. The challenge is to distance the message of his life from the militarism and triumphalism that can easily attach itself to anything connected to soldiers and fighting. The opportunity is to celebrate the ideal of the 'Christian soldier' - one who submits to discipline, sets out to obey God truly, does not avoid the inevitable battle with all that is unjust, wrong and hateful in our world, and marches alongside others fighting the same noble cause. Discipline, obedience, courage, fellowship and loyalty - they're not the most popular virtues today, but that doesn't mean that they don't deserve our admiration.
