From the Vicarage

Dear Friends,

February is the month we begin Lent, on the 22nd, but with Pancake Day (Shrove Tuesday), the day before on the 21st, when traditionally all the eggs and fats were emptied from the cupboards to make the pancakes!

This Lent, the Church of England are inviting us to explore how we can live well with the mess of everyday life.

Dust and Glory encourages us to take a fresh look at the frustrations and failings that every day brings and, rather than pretending we can always avoid them, seek to learn from them and grow closer to God through them.

Dust and Glory: A Lent journey of faith, failure and forgiveness is the Church of England's Lent theme for 2023. This year's resources are informed and inspired by the Archbishop of Canterbury's 2023 Lent Book, Failure: What Jesus said about sin, mistakes and messing stuff up (SPCK) by Bishop Emma Ineson, who has also co-written the daily reflections booklet for adults (CHP).

There will be free online support for groups studying the book – including in-depth video interviews with the Archbishop of Canterbury and others exploring the themes of each of the chapters.

We will also be holding our own Lent course 'Pilgrimage' during Lent and the Diocese of Chelmsford are also offering modules, both of which are advertised in this magazine. Whichever resource you decide to use, may you have a meaningful Lent!

God bless,

Reverend Steven

Benefice Lent Course 'Pilgrimage'

www.lentpilgrimage.org.uk

The course represents a departure in style and format from that offered in previous years. Each week, we are invited to gather in groups for reflection and spiritual conversation around a series of themes drawn from the overarching title of 'Pilgrimage'. The idea is that we embark on a spiritual journey through Lent, both alone and in company, sharing with others our personal reflections, stories and insights.

Saturday Morning Drop In - Warmth, Coffee, and Company - St. Thomas Church Warm Space

With increasing energy bills, many people are avoiding or simply cannot afford to put their heating on. Warm Spaces are an initiative that has been followed throughout the country to provide a warm and welcoming environment where people can meet others, take part in activities, enjoy a warm drink and other facilities as well as a warm environment.

On Saturday mornings in the month of January and February the Chapman room in St. Thomas's Church will be open for warmth, tea, fresh coffee, and a chat. Pop in for 5 minutes or two hours. There is not even a requirement to chat, you can sit and contemplate quietly, knit, or read a book.

Pop in between 10am and 12 noon on:

4th February, 11th February, 18th February, 25th February

For more information please contact Graeme at gceyre@gmail.com or 07985 520634

All copy for the March Village View should be sent to Roger Scurrell by phone (776341), posted through the letterbox of 6 St Thomas' Row, Bradwell, or by email to the address below, all by February 12th.

Copy may also be submitted as a text or Microsoft Word or Publisher file, either on CD or, better still, by email to stthomasppcc@btinternet.com. We ask you to limit your article to 300-350 words and please include a picture.

We apologise but no articles will be accepted after February 12th.

If you belong to an organisation that does not yet submit articles for the Village View we would like to hear from you even in longhand if you do not have access to a computer. Any news you have is always very welcome.

Life moves on

What a privilege to have lived in Bradwell for over 52 years. Brenda and I were so fortunate to have found our home here. I know these words are echoed by our family who grew up here. We have such memories of all who have enriched our lives. Thank you all for your friendship.

But the time has come to move to be near where my family now live, in and around Bristol, a move taking place at the end of January.

Sunday January 1st was the last time for me to play the organ for a Service in St Thomas'. It was just so heart-warming to find a gathering of many friends after the Service. A huge thank you for the lovely gift, a new painting of the church by Sue Spiers. It will have pride of place in my new home. And then the bells were rung at the end of the gathering in my honour – thanks to my colleagues in the tower for being such great friends over the years.

Thank you all.

Brian Clayden

Tales from RAF Bradwell Bay

RAF Bradwell Bay was a multi-cultural base and recently I have been looking at the different nationalities involved. RAF Bradwell Bay was not one of the many aerodromes inhabited by the United States Airforce. There were some American Pilots, but they had joined the RAF before the USA entered the War.

However, the USAF did make use of Bradwell Bay. US aircraft including large aircraft such a B17 Flying Fortress^s visited Bradwell, sometimes for fuel, sometimes with battle damage and injured or dead airman.

I have extracted a 7-page document of incidents where the USAF had to land at Bradwell Bay, for example on 29th January 1944:

Around 1320 hours a FORTRESS from 524 Squadron U.S.A.A.F. KIMBOLTON landed with a wounded bombardier, 2nd Lt. NATHAN, who was removed to the American hospital at BRAINTREE. A second member of the crew was unfortunately killed. He was 2nd Lt. RAU the navigator, who had put up a very good show by giving the pilot courses until his wounds and lack of oxygen overcame him. After refuelling the FORTRESS left for KIMBOLTON.

How much involvement from Bradwell Bay was needed. The first contact would have been the rescue crews, i.e., Fire and Ambulance. 2nd Lt Nathan would have been removed and initially taken by RAF Ambulance to the station sickbay and assessed by the Medical Officer. The decision was made to transfer to the large American Hospital in Braintree and an US Ambulance requested to collect him. 2nd Lt Rau would have been removed to the sick bay mortuary. The Fortress would have had some temporary repairs made so they could fly back to their own base. Before taking off the aircraft would have been refuelled by the fuel bowsers.

This was just one of many times that RAF Bradwell Bay assisted the USA.

This is the memorial to the large American Forces Hospital located in Braintree.

St Lawrence Church

On 14 January we were pleased to welcome many guests to the church to join in the blessing of the new inner glass doors of the porch.

The new doors enable the outer doors to be open so those outside can feel the warm welcome of the inside, and those inside can experience the wonderful views over the river and countryside.

Our guests included Patron of The Friends of St Lawrence Church John Whittingdale MP, Ben Downie Architect, Marian Gibson St Lawrence Parish Council Chairperson, and members of the South Essex Metal Detectors Group who had donated generously towards the doors.

The Very Revd Nicholas Henshall, Dean of Chelmsford performed the blessing and was assisted in the service by our Revd Steven Poss and the St Lawrence Singers Choir.

Time to get walking again!

With Spring on its way we start to think about getting out to walk in the beautiful English countryside again, but where to find new and interesting walks?

Walking in Essex <https://www.walkinginengland.co.uk/essex> has loads of walks to download and print, free, it also has books of walks, details of all the walking groups in the county and much more. Whether you want to walk on your own or with a group all the information is there in one place.

John Harris (who maintains the website) said 'There is so much walking information on the web but it is difficult to find. Walking in Essex (part of the Walking in England website) has brought it together in one place so whether you are walking from home, or away on holiday, you will be able to find a walk suitable for you'.

With walks from half a mile to twelve miles plus long, and a note of suitability for pushchairs and wheelchairs, everyone can find a walk to enjoy.

So home or away, check out the websites and get walking!

The Othona Community.

Fifty years ago – which seems like yesterday to some of us, but ancient history to others – Norman Motley, founder of the Othona Community, wrote a letter. This is now included in the book “Norman Motley – Letters to a Community 1970-1980.” That letter described the challenge of the time as: “to learn to live; to reject the philosophy of hopelessness; to counteract the hatred of our national and international life.” He was referring to the considerable improvements in the preceding 25 years, to ecumenical relations. Was he right to believe, as he wrote then, that Othona’s task in such relations was “nearly over?” Or are there other challenges in the life and worship of the many bodies of Christians, which are not yet resolved? Othona welcomes people of all faiths and none, yet as a Christian community we do rather lack that dynamic mix that might include more evangelical churches, people of Roman Catholic faith or of Orthodox practice. On top of that, and fifty years after Norman’s contemplating true ecumenism at Othona, we have seen such a change in the relationship between Christianity and other faiths, as the ethnic and cultural diversity of our wider community has burgeoned, that Othona may barely dare to think that our Community is at the cutting edge of building God’s kingdom on earth. Still we seek to turn hopelessness to hope, hatred to love: right here and world-wide.

Communication is a vital aspect of the life of the Othona Community. We are a dispersed Community, with a few people living, working and managing each Centre, Essex and Dorset, many people who volunteer or visit regularly, and yet more whose lives have been touched by the spirit of Othona although they are rarely if ever able to visit a Centre, remaining connected as Members, Friends or through informal networks. But one aspect of modern living is instant communication. Words are spoken, sometimes with little thought – writing so often means a quick tap on the keyboard, lost by tomorrow – and quantities of pictures are taken with no prospect of sharing them in an album for the great grandchildren. What our founding members did for Othona is fairly well captured by word of mouth, writings and quantities of photographs, giving a sense of foundation to what we are now building. Looking back fuels discussions in the present, which give hope for the future.

Now, more than ever, Othona is welcoming a diverse range of people through our sense of the need to work – yes, actually do something – to promote global climate justice. From 28th April to 1st May Othona is hosting the second Essex Green Weekend, with activities for people of all ages, and a chance to connect with like-minded people making a difference which ripples from Essex in words, music and action. The Othona programme is on the Othona Essex website or available locally as a leaflet. There is something for everyone, from quieter retreats to that ever-lively February half-term. Many people who visit Othona are inspired to volunteer – if that is you, please do contact one of the team for a chat about what you have to offer on a one-off or regular basis: cleaning, cooking, gardening, maintenance, being there to welcome groups, a bit of admin or whatever skills you would like to share – while you enjoy a cuppa and a natter.

Local day visitors are welcome but best contact the team first, particularly if you would like a meal.

Wednesday 11th January at the Village Hall

A new years quiz to get us all thinking!

For our first meeting of the year, we were treated to a fantastic quiz organised and hosted by our very own Carol. She did a superb job of really testing us all, even Pat! The rounds included the year 2022, Music, Sport and, of course, Famous women! Carol had also arranged a Tombola for us all to have a go at.

It wasn't an easy quiz, and it really got us thinking (but I would say that, I was on the losing team!). Would you have known what film Steven Spielberg won his first Oscar with? Or where Captain James Cook died? Or even which sport you might 'catch a crab?

With just one point in it, the 'Young ones' – Pat, Jeanne, Pam and Brigid – beat the 'Naughty girls' and the 'Village idiots' (no surprises there!) and each one a bottle of prosecco!

It was a great evening and a perfect start to what should be an exciting year ahead for our WI.

Our next meeting is on the 8th of February in the village hall for our talk on the Witch trials of Essex with Rose Griffin Twidell.

New members are always welcome, so please feel free to come along!

If you have any questions about what we get up to, you can contact Sue Pirret on 07824696807 or sue@dailygrindimports.com
