From the Rector

Dear Friends,

It is great to start the Magazine in paper copy once again.

We are looking to open up our churches on 23 May at Pentecost, as most people will have had 2 jabs and it coincides with the indoor opening of things on the 17th May, we will do it with caution but also optimism that all the restrictions will end on 21 June. We hope we can get back to being open on a consistent basis and to possibly put on some events too.

The past year has been a tough one for us all, so everyone is welcome to come to our services and events and just talk and share what's happened to them over the past year, so that we can comfort one another and share our burdens. As with most organisations, we have been affected financially and we have received no government grants, so if you would like to contribute financially to the church, either as a one off or regularly, do please contact me for more information.

Pentecost is the birthday of the church and a new beginning when the Holy Spirit came on the disciples to give them the courage and boldness to spread the Gospel across the world. May it be a new beginning and new birth for us too, to receive the good news of Jesus and the Holy Spirit in our lives.

Do come and celebrate this important festival with us.

God bless,

Steven

We apologise but no articles will be accepted after May 12th.

My Garden?

I thought I owned a garden
A lovely place to be
A bird said, "Beg your pardon,
"This land belongs to me!"

A pheasant flapped and squawked so loud
I scarce could hear me think!
"Get off my ground, for two's a crowd!"
He kicked up such a stink!

A squirrel dropped a nut on me
Which wasn't what I'd planned
"Get lost!", said he, "for can't you see
"You trespass on my land?"

The wild-life around me
So loudly do protest!
They growl and screech till I can see
That I am just a guest

Bradwell WI Zoom Meeting – 14 April 2021

On a cool spring evening 13 WI members joined together once again in the comfort of their arm chairs for a Zoom meeting, poised and eager in anticipation of our talk by Tim Albert, who himself has had to come to terms with the rudimentaries of Zoom, with the added benefit of being able to reach all around the world with his talks. We were also delighted to welcome from Canada, Martha Ewart, Zooming from Ontario where she books speakers for her local group - Probus.

Tim Albert was a very entertaining man who had written about his two trips around the US on Greyhound buses 50 years apart; 1969 and 2019 – first when he was 22 and then at the age of 72, when it's fair to say he had one or two aches and pains. His background was in journalism which stood him in good stead to write his two books about his travels.

In 1969 Nixon was in the White House and the Vietnam War was raging, the year also saw the first man on the Moon. In 2019 Donald Trump was in power and it was the age of the 'selfie'.

In 2019 skylines were very different and near perfect photos could be taken on mobile phones. In actual fact Tim had to upgrade his travelling companions, with the ubiquitous mobile phone and laptop, and for an added touch of luxury two cushions – one for his neck the other for his posterior.

The logo features the text 'the WI' in a large, green, sans-serif font, with 'the' in lowercase and 'WI' in uppercase. Below this, the words 'INSPIRING WOMEN' are written in a smaller, dark green, all-caps, sans-serif font.

Tim's mode of transport – the Greyhound Bus – had changed over the fifty years. People were more social back in 1969 – in 2019 they had earned a rather more concerning reputation, including accidents and violence.

Two highlights from 2019 – he was given a free poncho to help keep him dry visiting Niagara Falls instead of something that 100's of tourists had worn before him. He was also able to book a tour of the Moon landing control room which had been used in 1969.

There were unfortunately downsides, including abandoned buildings in Detroit where once was a booming industry. The use of guns were also far worse 50 years on. With even Walmart selling guns – he told the story about taking a photo of the guns for sale and the next thing an advert appeared on his mobile phone for guns. All in all, Tim had a terrific time in America on both visits, especially loved meeting the people – these can be read about in his two books.

Tim invited the group to ask questions and closed at 20:30.

Linda Sibley continued the meeting with WI news.

Julie says that she has received 90% of members fees.

Theresa - at the moment the 'Village News' is online but hopefully will be back in paper form in May.

Linda Sibley thanked Carol for her WI write up – which appeared in the 'Village News' online.

Linda Sibley hoped the Patchwork and Craft Groups will be up and running soon – all within guidelines.

Linda Sibley, to discuss with the committee and help to set up 'Coffee Mornings' for groups of up to 6 members. Both Linda Barnes and Sibley are happy to host.

As yet there is no clear date when monthly group meetings can resume.

Linda Barnes - The Walking group will hopefully reform in June – possibly with picnics / or outdoor pub gardens.

Andrea informed the group there will be a ticketed Literary lunch at the Corinthian on Friday 20 August with the crime writer Ruth Dugdall as speaker and she will be attending a Zoom event organised by the FEWI on Friday 16 April – Speakers Day – and will pass on any relevant information.

Thank you to Jeanne for organising this month's speaker Tim Albert .

Rogation Sunday

Rogation means an asking of God – for blessing on the seed and land for the year ahead. It is appropriate in any emergency, war, plague, drought or foul weather.

The practice began with the Romans, who invoked the help of the gods Terminus in late February whose protection was sought for boundary markers and in May the fertility rite of Ambarvalia in honour of the god Ceres, who was guardian of crops and fertility. In those days a crowd moved in procession around the cornfields, singing and dancing, sacrificing animals, and driving away Winter with sticks. They wanted to rid the cornfields of evil.

In about 465 the Western world was suffering from earthquake, storm and epidemic. So Mamerius, Bishop of Vienne, aware of the popular pagan custom, ordered that prayers should be said in the ruined or neglected fields on the days leading up to Ascension. With his decision, 'beating the bounds' became a Christian ceremonial.

Rogation-tide arrived in England early in the eighth century and became a fixed and perennial asking for help of the Christian God. On Rogation-tide, a little party would set out to trace the boundaries of the parish. At the head marched the bishop or the priest, with a minor official bearing a Cross, and after them the people of the parish, with schoolboys and their master trailing along. Most of them held slender wands of willow.

At certain points along the route – at well-known landmarks like a bridge or stile or ancient tree, the Cross halted, the party gathered about the priest, and a litany or rogation was said, imploring God to send seasonable wealth, keep the corn and roots and boughs in good health, and bring them to an ample harvest. At some point beer and cheese would be waiting.

In the days when maps were neither common nor accurate, there was much to be said for 'beating the bounds.' It was still very common as late as the reign of Queen Victoria. Certainly, parish boundaries rarely came into dispute, for everyone knew them. (Do you know yours today?)

Rogation Rally 2019

Ascension Day

Forty days after Easter comes Ascension Day. These are the 40 days during which the Risen Christ appeared again and again to His disciples, following His death and resurrection. (Matthew 28; Mark 16; Luke 24; and John 20.)

The Gospels give us little of Christ's teachings and deeds during those 40 days. Jesus was seen by numerous of His disciples: on the road to Emmaus, by the Sea of Galilee, in houses, etc. He strengthened and encouraged His disciples, and at last opened their eyes to all that the Scriptures had promised about the Messiah.

Jesus also told them that as the Father had sent Him, He was now going to send them – to all corners of the earth, as His witnesses.

Surely the most tender, moving 'farewell' in history took place on Ascension Day. Luke records the story with great poignancy: 'When Jesus had led them out to the vicinity of Bethany, He lifted up His hands – and blessed them.'

Ascension Day

As Christmas began the story of Jesus' life on earth, so Ascension Day completes it, with His return to His Father in heaven. Jesus' last act on earth was to bless His disciples. He and they had a bond as close as could be: they had just lived through three tumultuous years of public ministry and miracles, persecution and death – and resurrection! Just as we part from our nearest and dearest by still looking at them with love and memories in our eyes, so exactly did Jesus: 'While He was blessing them, He left them and was taken up into heaven.' (Luke 24:50-1) He was not forsaking them, but merely going on ahead to a kingdom which would also be theirs one day: 'I am ascending to my Father and to your Father, to my God and your God...' (John 20:17)

The disciples were surely the most favoured folk in history. Imagine being one of the last few people on earth to be face to face with Jesus, and have Him look on you with love. No wonder then that Luke goes on: 'they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. And they stayed continually at the temple, praising God.' (Luke 24:52,53)

Plant of the month – Tree Peonies

Tree Peonies are wonderful when on flower, admittedly the flowers do not last long but when they do flower, they are so extravagant the memory lasts all year. May is a beautiful month and I always look forward to my Tree Peony blooming.

Tree Peonies are a larger, woody relatives of the Common Peony, growing up to 4 feet wide and tall. Highly prized for their large prolific blooms that can grow up to 10 inches in diameter.

Facts:

Long-lived shrubs with sumptuous

flowers - Flowering mid spring to early summer

Planting

Plant in autumn in a sunny or lightly shaded spot -
Choose a position sheltered from cold winds - Prune out dead stems in late winter
- Mulch and fertilise in spring - Make new plants by division in autumn

Gardening in May

This is the month to plant out bedding plants into the garden, hanging baskets and patio tubs with summer flowers. Last year I was able to find West View nursery in Bicknacre open during the first lockdown and get my tubs planted early, they looked so splendid all summer.

Plant Dahlia tubers into the garden in their flowering position.

Now is the time to plant Runner Bean seeds, also sow Marrow, Pumpkin and Courgette seeds indoors and plant out into the garden later in the month.

Sow sweetcorn when ground is warm, or buy plants and put them out when the weather is warm.

Plant Tomato, Pepper, Chilli and Cucumbers plants in the greenhouse.

Open greenhouse vents on sunny days to prevent humidity building up

Plant Begonia corms in pots in the greenhouse. Grow on Geraniums for planting outside latter in the month or for greenhouse pot plants.

The Othona Community in May 2021.

You will see from our Othona Bradwell Website that we reopened for limited pre-booked day visitors from the 12th April following the government 'rule of six' and restricted to outdoor seating. This opportunity continues into May - there is a small charge for day visitors which includes a picnic lunch and refreshments. New and returning visitors are loving this opportunity to relax in the sun, or in the marquee: Facebook has some pictures. We are planning to reopen for residential stays from the 17th May adhering to government guidelines for social distancing with reduced occupancy. This will be a time to come for a relaxed stay with no set programme and we will operate as a Covid-secure venue similar to a hotel or hostel prior to the anticipated relaxation of the social distancing rules on June 21st. After this date, if the government guidelines allow, we will be able to relax the social distancing regulations and have a 'nearly' normal Community summer.

Othona has a new 2021 Summer Programme now on the Othona Bradwell website, (<https://www.othonaessex.org.uk/events-listing>) with events running from Monday to Friday, including Music, Art, Olympics and Permaculture – a chance to share in producing and tasting our delicious home grown fruit and vegetables - with the weekends free of a set programme. You are very welcome to book either for meal, a weekend or for the event weeks - online, or contact us in the office on 01621 776564, email bradwell@othona.org. We are ready to respond with whatever the latest guidelines for the hospitality sector are to enable safe opening. Currently the staff here are mainly on furlough to minimise outgoings during difficult financial times, please be patient if you have a query.

Did you know that some people who live in Bradwell and our local villages are still wary of coming down to Othona? Just to set the record straight, we are not a nudist camp, we are not a religious sect or cult, and we are certainly not exclusive! We are just people who value the concept of community – of seeking to live in unity with one another, valuing common ground and embracing differences in age, ability, culture, faith, background, race and gender in a way that does not emphasise differences or try to change lifestyles. Most people who spend a few hours, a few days or a few weeks at one of the Othona Centres (Bradwell-on-Sea Essex, or Burton Bradstock West Dorset) – or even a few years on our staff team – enjoy the peace and tranquility, the lack of pressure, the simple lifestyle, the opportunity to make a practical contribution or to appreciate a well-earned rest, a chance to reflect, and to “recharge batteries.” There are opportunities to share in elements of Work, Worship, Study and Play together on Community, or just to relax, chat, walk and enjoy good home cooked meals together. Local people often just pop in for a cuppa while out for a walk – all are welcome (although Covid restrictions apply and bookings are required at present.)

Othona is run as two Charities, the Othona trust that owns the buildings, and the Othona Company that runs our Centres, where people are welcome. You may be in a position to make a donation to sustain the Community at Bradwell, and to help us with Projects to ensure Othona is a real asset to our local community, such as a second small wind-turbine to keep us on grid and protect our environment. To learn more about Othona or to make a donation, do take a look at our website. Tim Fox is Warden/Manager, with Debbie and Richard Sanders. Email bradwell@othona.org. Website: www.othonaessex.org.uk. Telephone 01621 776564. Keep in contact for details of re-opening times – hoping to meet and greet you in 2021.
