From the Vicarage

Dear Friends,

Myself and Kate are delighted to announce the birth of our daughter Phoebe, who was born on Monday 31st March, weighing 4 pounds 11 ounces. We are overwhelmed with this great gift of love, she is so beautiful!

As we celebrate, we also celebrate this Easter Season, full of Alleluia's, which have a different and deeper meaning to us this year.

On Thursday 8th May 2025, we're marking the 80th anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE Day) with the lighting of the Beacon at St Lawrence Church at 9.30pm, when the nation will unite to remember the end of the Second World War in Europe. Around the country, events will be taking place to pay tribute to those involved in that conflict, as well as reminding us to pray and work for peace in our communities and in the world.

On VE Day, churches sounded their bells to signify the end of the war. This year on 8 May at 6:30pm, you can join churches and cathedrals around the nation as they let their bells ring out - an opportunity to reflect and give thanks for the peace that so many sacrificed their lives for during the Second World War.

We will be holding special Sunday services during this to commemorate the day. You can also Light a candle online via this website (Light a candle | The Church of England), to remember loved ones who fought in the war.

Also, this year we're very excited to be celebrating the 10th year of Thy Kingdom Come from 29th May to 8th June, where we pray for people to come to know the love of God in Jesus. We'll have all of the usual resources and videos as well as some special anniversary content on the website Thy Kingdom Come | Thy Kingdom Come

Sign up to the mailing list and keep an eye on the socials to be kept up-to-date with all that's happening.

God bless,

Reverend Steven

Bradwell-on-Sea WI meeting

9 April with TEMPRD Chocolate

We were delighted to welcome Sonia and Rob from TEMPRD Chocolate to our April meeting with their samples and wonderful array of flavoured chocolate for us to buy.

It must have been the allure of the chocolate as we had a full house – 28 ladies (including 7 new members and two visitors)! I'm sure Rob and Sonia didn't disappoint.

Rob explained he went from the corporate world to becoming a chocolatier with his wife Sonia, to create a family run business in Maldon starting online in November 2020, and gradually seeing their chocolate being sold in shops, with some flavours selling around the world. TEMPRD are known for their chunky chocolate which is a high luxury quality product, no palm oil, 17 flavours with special editions all made in small batches. They are also proud of foiling and wrapping themselves which gives their chocolate a very personal touch!

Their business is very much a family affair and after leaving his previous job Rob was keen to be part of the £6bn British love affair with chocolate. Absolutely everything was a huge learning curve. They went with the theme of making their chocolate chunky and designed their own moulds which has their own logo in the middle which customers tend to leave til last to eat. TEMPRD is their own invention- with two vowels taken out of Tempered which is a process in chocolate making which is deemed to be right on trend.

Plenty of mistakes have been made along the way, they nearly destroyed their brand new and very expensive machine when the chocolate and inclusions set rock hard! Another time when leaving the chocolate overnight the machine was accidentally put into forward motion resulting in chocolate everywhere for them to find the next morning! Rob and Sonia have learnt a tremendous amount by these lessons and are now making fantastic bars of delicious chocolate, which I'm sure the ladies would agree with. After Rob's entertaining talk with lots of laughter it was time for us to sample and buy ... I selected the espresso and walnut along with the dark ginger ...

Rob judged our competition which was 'Chocolate Muffins with a twist', Julie was 3rd, Ann 2nd and Jenna 1st – well done to Jenna who won first place at her first WI meeting as a member. Our raffle was won by Eunice at her very first Bradwell WI meeting and birthday flowers were awarded to Sue, Linda and Jo ... Happy Birthday ladies!

News from RAF Bradwell Bay

This is it! May and the war is coming to an end. Victory in Europe was on 8th May 1945, 80 years ago. Did RAF Bradwell Bay celebrate? You bet it did. The Station Operational Record Book states:

VE Day celebrations were held throughout the day. A Thanksgiving Service was attended by the whole station, at which the Station Commander gave a short address describing the meaning of VE Day. The rest of the day was regarded as a holiday and in the evening an all ranks dance was held which was attended by most of the Station. Free drinks and refreshments were provided by P.S.I. and Mess Funds.

VE Day Parade at RAF Bradwell Bay

We are holding a VE Day cockney party at the Green Man on 9th May - watch our Facebook page RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group for details and on 11th May we are joining Steeple for their village celebrations at the village hall.

The RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group has a new Facebook page rafbradwell bay preservation group and our new website www.rafbradwellbay.com.

We are recruiting trustees to work alongside our management committee. If you have skills such as business-related skills, we could use them or if you would like to get involved in this local project.

The RAF Bradwell Bay Preservation Group seeks to preserve the history of the RAF in Bradwell on Sea. We are planning for a museum near the memorial.

The Othona Community in May 2025

Our new Warden, David Jenkins arrived at Othona in mid-April. It's a real pleasure to meet him and we wish him well for the future here.

Here is a short piece of bio from him: I will leave my home in the Netherlands where I have lived for the last 13 years to come and join you in Othona. During my time in the Netherlands I have worked as a Carpenter and Teacher of Art and Design. Prior to moving to Holland I worked as Teacher for many years in Cambridgeshire and Suffolk and greatly enjoyed inspiring and working with young people. I have 3 beautiful children of my own who are now 18, 20 and 22 and ever more independent. It feels very much like my time to follow a path which feels more in tune with who I am as I turn 55. I look forward to being of service to all who come to Othona and those of you who are part of the wonderful community that I have been fortunate enough to find and have the opportunity to be a part of.

Please take time to welcome him at the start of his time here: David knows that he will need the love and support of fellow Christians and people of all faiths and none, as he commits to the exciting, challenging role of Warden/Manager at Othona Essex.

We give our thanks and love to departing Wardens Debbie and Richard . At the time of writing we are watching and waiting, as the disciples did, for the events of the days to come.....only we know, and celebrate, the resurrection of Jesus following those days of horror and despondency. In this world today, we still watch with horror and despondency at some of the world events: wars, famine and utter poverty due to the action, and inaction, of human beings. Still we hope and pray for hope and peace, and some may find yourselves in tune with Quaker "Advices and Queries:"

"Bring into God's light those emotions, attitudes and prejudices in yourself that lie at the root of destructive conflict, acknowledging your need for forgiveness and grace. In what ways are you involved in the work of reconciliation between individuals, groups and nations?"

Othona Community was founded on the aspiration that a fuller personal understanding between people would contribute to a climate where society could grow without rancour and violence, - when war would be unthinkable. Still we offer opportunities for people to share reflective times as individuals, in private groups, or by joining some of the many activities from our Programme that offer fun and

Remembering VE Day – 80 years on

80 years ago, on 8th May 1945, VE Day took place – marking Victory in Europe at the end of World War 2. It was celebrated as a public holiday, and came exactly a week after German radio announced the death in action of Adolf Hitler.

In reality, Hitler had committed suicide on 30th April. His successor, Grand Admiral Karl Dönitz, quickly negotiated an end to the war with the Allies – at the same time trying with some success to prevent as many Germans as possible from falling into Soviet hands.

Field Marshal Montgomery accepted the unconditional surrender of German forces in the Netherlands, north-west Germany and Denmark at a ceremony near Hamburg on 4th May. All German forces then surrendered to Supreme Allied Commander General Eisenhower on 7th May at Reims, France. Soviet leader Josef Stalin had his own ceremony, in Berlin.

The announcement that the war had ended in Europe was broadcast to the British people by the BBC late on 7th May. It was decreed that there would be a national holiday the next day, and the stage was set for huge celebrations. Prime Minister Churchill had been assured that there was enough beer in the capital, and commemorative items, including VE Day mugs, were quickly produced.

St Paul's Cathedral held ten consecutive services giving thanks for peace, each one attended by thousands of people, and churches throughout the country rang their bells. The Royal Family played a central role, appearing eight times on the balcony of Buckingham Palace while huge numbers of people flocked down The Mall. In the United States, VE Day coincided with President Harry S Truman's 61st birthday: he dedicated the victory to the memory of his predecessor, Franklin D Roosevelt, who had died of a stroke less than a month earlier. But both Truman and Churchill pointed out that the war against Japan had not yet been won. That final victory was still more than three months away.

Of course, the end of a war could never be neat. In Europe the last known shots on the Eastern Front were actually fired on 11th May, and on 25th May the battle of Odžak ended in a Yugoslav Partisan victory. Tragically, in French Algeria, Muslims celebrating the end of the war (some also peacefully protesting for independence) were "inexcusably" massacred by colonial authorities and militias – leading eventually to the Algerian War nine years later.

The bells rang out in England

The bells rang out in England
And songs of heartfelt joy,
But 'midst the cheers were bitter tears
For each lost man and boy.

The six long years of fighting
Had such a dreadful cost
In blood and sweat and mortal threat
And countless lives were lost.

It now, at last, had ended –
In Europe's shores at least;
Our people brave feared not the grave
To slay the Nazi beast.

The lessons learned stayed with us
For eighty peaceful years.
Yet now, again, some brutal men
Are raising wartime fears.

We should be celebrating
This coming VE Day;
Yet not at ease, but on our knees
For lasting peace, we pray.
