From the Rector

Dear Friends,

It is great to have our magazine printed again, as we start to live our Christian worship again, and as we approach the important times of Remembrance Day, All Souls and Christmas.

As we enter into October, we remain living under challenging times, although with some easier movements. As God's people, we are to set an example in following the guidelines as best we can and support our neighbours and communities in any way that we can.

We are to be salt and light in our world, where we stand and live for things that are good and stand and live against things that are not.

God bless,

Reverend Steven

Issued by NHS Mid Essex Clinical Commissioning Group

Immediate Release: Tuesday 14 September 2020

GP SERVICES ARE THERE WHEN YOU NEED THEM

The coronavirus pandemic has meant that the NHS has had to work differently in order to keep staff and patients safe. Local GPs would like to remind local residents that for everyone's safety, GP Practices will continue to operate a 'phone first' system if they feel it would be better to see a patient in person then they have made it safe to do so.

There are four main ways to seek healthcare advice from your GP:

Call your surgery to discuss a face-to-face or virtual (telephone or video) appointment;

In some practices you can visit your GP surgery website and complete a confidential online form to receive a response before the end of the next working day;

Call NHS 111 or go online to seek advice <https://111.nhs.uk/> ;

Download the NHS App to order repeat prescriptions, book appointments and check your symptoms.

Please do not present at A&E unless it is an emergency.

Appointments will be carried out in one of three ways:

by telephone

via video consultation

in person at the practice

Face to face appointments will be arranged if they are medically appropriate and considered in the best interests of the patient.

Practices are open Monday to Friday, from 8am to 6.30pm.

Patients should also be aware that pre-bookable evening and weekend appointments are also available through the extended access service.

To book an evening or weekend appointment, patients should contact their practice in the usual way.

Daniel Doherty, Deputy Accountable Officer Mid Essex Clinical Commissioning Group, said:

"We understand that some people will still feel reluctant or nervous about contacting their GP – whether that is because they don't want to be a burden or they are hesitant about going into a practice."<sup>4</sup>

However, I would urge people to seek medical help from NHS 111 or at their local GP Practice if they have a health issue. GP Practice staff have been working incredibly hard to ensure local people get the help that they need. For everyone's safety, we are still asking patients to contact our GP practices remotely – and we have adapted really well to this new way of working – but if we feel it would be better to see a patient in person it is safe to do so.

If you are waiting for a check-up, please be assured your practice will be in touch. Appointments are being delivered face-to-face, online and over the telephone to manage demand. Remember, if you are asked to come into a surgery for a face-to-face appointment, please wear a face covering. These measures are in place to keep you safe from infection during your visit to the surgery”.

Bradwell Women's Institute

Bradwell-on-Sea WI. managed to hold their socially distanced September meeting before the latest Covid restrictions. Members enjoyed a talk on the comforting subject of chocolate! Sarah Knights, of Chappel Chocolate House, with the help of Linda, showed members how to temper chocolate and then use it to line moulds. Sarah explained that, somewhat like wine, the flavour of chocolate depends on the variety of cocoa, the growing conditions and the fermentation and roasting of the beans.

Members sampled six different varieties of chocolate and finished with Sarah's

theWI
INSPIRING WOMEN

latest creation, a lovely raspberry gin chocolate.

As the Institute was unable to hold its annual meeting in May, members voted to approve the financial statement and annual report. It was agreed that the present officers and committee would continue until May 2021, when we hope everything will be back to normal. The craft evening will be on Tuesday 29th September. The other groups will return when the restrictions allow.

“Lord, make me an instrument of peace.”

These words are familiar to us as a prayer of St Francis of Assisi, whose feast day falls on October 4th.

Unfortunately this attribution appears false as there is no evidence of it in his writings and it is not included in the official Prayers of St Francis issued by the Franciscan Order. Church scholars also noted that the wording of the opening sentences which concentrates on ‘me’ was unlike the phraseology of St Francis while there is no mention of God or Jesus.

The earliest record of the prayer dates from 1912 when it appeared anonymously in La Clochette, a small French spiritual magazine. Perhaps it was the work of Father Bouquerel, the publishing organisation’s founder.

As a Prayer for Peace it was extensively used in both World Wars while it has become familiar having been set to music as Make me a channel of your peace by Johann Sebastian von Tempelhoff, usually known as Sebastian Temple, in 1967. For a number of years it was not widely known until it was performed in 1997 at Princess Diana’s funeral by the Westminster Boys’ Choir. This resulted in a massive surge in popularity with performances and recordings by a number of well-known singers.

Politicians have also quoted the prayer, including Margaret Thatcher on becoming Prime Minister in 1979 and U S President Bill Clinton in 1995, when welcoming Pope John Paul II to address the United Nations.

The words may not be those of St Francis but he would surely have approved of the sentiments expressed and the message they convey.

Peace

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.*

*O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.*

Francis of Assisi was born in late 1181 or early 1182, one of several children of an Italian father, Pietro di Bernardone dei Moriconi, a prosperous silk merchant, and a French mother, about whom little is known except that she was a noblewoman originally from Provence.

He was the founder of the Franciscan orders of the Friars Minor, the women's Order of St. Clare (the Poor Clares), and the lay Third Order. He was also a leader of the movement of evangelical poverty in the early 13th century. His evangelical zeal, consecration to poverty and charity, and his personal charisma, drew thousands of followers. Francis's devotion to the human Jesus and his desire to follow Jesus' example reflected and reinforced important developments in medieval spirituality. The Poverello ("Poor Little Man") is one of the most venerated religious figures in Roman Catholic history, and he and St. Catherine of Siena are the patron saints of Italy. He died in 1226, was canonized in 1228 and in 1979 Pope John Paul II recognized him as the patron saint of ecology.

The Bird Watcher's Psyche .....

During a recent stay in Somerset I had the opportunity to have a conversation with a detectorist. He was working a field with his metal detector, near to where I was staying. He had found several buckles and a number of coins from past centuries – one coin from the fourteen hundreds. I asked him more about his hobby. He goes not expecting to find anything; he sometimes has good luck but needs patience in waiting for it. What a joy when luck and patience are rewarded.

The following day I visited a Somerset Wildlife Trust reserve. The reed beds and shallow pools are home to so much wildlife. Sitting in a newly-discovered hide I pondered the philosophy of my friend from the day before; expect nothing but wait patiently for luck to come up with something. My first reward didn't take long. Cetti's Warblers were first recorded in Britain in 1961, but have now spread throughout southern England – and one gave its quick burst of song just in front of the hide. No chance of seeing it – Cetti's are one of the most retiring of birds, remaining deep in dense vegetation, but its quick, short gabble of song is unmistakable. Try "Listen! .....What's my name?.....Cetti-Cetti-Cetti.....that's it".

A long wait for the next offering, but suddenly a pig squealed just behind the hide. Don't be silly, pigs don't live in reed beds. A quick dash to the door revealed the source of the squeal - a Water Rail was scampering into the reeds.

But the triumph of the afternoon kept me in rapture for well over half an hour. A Kingfisher took up residence just 20 yards from the hide. Her image (it was indeed a female, with a red base to the bill) filled the view in the telescope. She enjoyed a leisurely late lunch, catching some half dozen small fish, always returning to the same perch.

The owners of the field worked by the detectorist are contemplating creating a mini museum of the finds on their land. But I can retain my memories. This is not my photo, regrettably.

The Othona Community in October – a Welcome to You All

You can't be in two places at once – or can you? Yes, if your special place is the Othona Community. Othona may not be where your feet are at the moment, but let it be where your heart is and it all makes sense. Not so much a place, as a movement – a sense that you have friends with whom you have a common bond, even if you have never met them. What do you share? Perhaps it's a common understanding that through sharing Work, Worship, Study and Play we build Community together. Just think about it – when we work together, we share the joy of creation. When we worship together we share the love of God. When we study together we spread a new understanding of a teaching that someone has just freely shared with us – about the solar system, about art, about films ... I can't begin to tell you how many topics have been discussed in the past 74 years! When we play together all barriers of age, race, ability and religion break down as we laugh at washed-away sandcastles, get excited about online quizzes or the Othona Virtual Flower and Produce Show, or experience the joy of a socially distanced walk by the sea – yes, Covid creeps in everywhere but will not win. Such memories, such imagination, are kept safely in our heads and in our hearts, so your feet do not have to be at Othona West Dorset, or Othona Bradwell, to be part of the Othona Community right now.

Thanks for sticking with us. This summer has been unusual. The Othona live-in staff team have mainly been on furlough, with limited hours to support the key administrative functions: bookings and finances. The four European Volunteers continue to be absolutely brilliant, cooking and serving, cleaning and tidying, mending and maintaining, meeting and greeting, all within the necessary Covid restrictions, so you'd hardly notice it was not Othona As Usual.

We have a programme for October, please see the Website for full details. Mid-week, Othona is open from Monday to Friday. Most weekends we planned a theme, but with Covid restrictions we may not be able to hold group activities.

Harvest theme weekend – Fri 2nd to Sunday 4th October, Autumn retreat; the importance of Being – Fri 9th to sun 11th.

Weekends at Othona – Fri 16th to Sun 18th October; Fri 23rd to Sun 25th October.

Family Week – Monday 26th to Friday 30th October.

All are welcome, from Bradwell, Tillingham, St Lawrence, Maldon, Spain, Italy, Czech, France... just remember to book first, even if you are just popping in, to comply with Covid regulations. Never visited? New faces always welcome.

Tim Fox is Warden/Manager, with Debbie and Richard Sanders. Want to visit? See Website www.othonaessex.org.uk - then ring Othona at Bradwell (it's down East End Rd and through East Hall Farm) on 01621 776564. Free Parking for all visitors to Othona—just ask for an exit token to leave through our wind-powered gate.

St Luke – Linking the Sacred and Profane.

St Luke the Evangelist is remembered on 18th October. To St Luke, a Gentile, we owe the beautifully written Gospel of Luke, and the Book of Acts. He was a Greek physician, a disciple of St Paul, a companion on some of his missionary journeys, and an inspired writer.

Luke's gospel focuses on the compassion of Christ. His gospel contains some of the most moving parables, such as the Good Samaritan and Prodigal Son. This, with his emphasis on poverty, prayer and purity of heart, make up much of his appeal to the Gentiles, for whom he wrote.

Women figure more prominently in Luke's gospel than any other: look out for the extended story of the Virgin Birth, and stories of Mary, Elizabeth, and the woman who was a sinner.

In Acts, Luke is remarkably good at linking sacred and profane history, as subsequent archaeology has shown. A principal theme of his Acts is how the early Christians moved away from Jerusalem into the pagan world, and especially on to Rome.

Luke is the patron saint of doctors, surgeons and artists (due to his picturesque style of writing). His symbol is an ox, sometimes explained by reference to the sacrifice in the Temple at the beginning of his Gospel. In England 28 ancient churches were dedicated

Gardening in October

Flowers Plant daffodils, hyacinths and crocus bulbs. Plant spring bedding plants like Wallflowers, winter pansies etc. Wallflowers need to be planted as soon as possible as the longer they have to get established before the winter the better they will be in the spring.

(Wait till November/December to plant Tulip bulbs)

Now remove the final plants from summer flowering tubs and plant with winter flowering pansies, forget-me-nots and primroses or polyanthuses, and spring bulbs.

Prune climbing or rambling roses, cut back to the ground all old (hardwood) stems that have flowered this year then tie in all the new stems horizontally for the winter to encourage flowering side-shoots for next summer.

As weather cools divide and share herbaceous perennials.

Autumn is the ideal time to plant Clematis, remember to plant them deeply, about 3inches below the level they are growing in their pots. October is also an ideal time for taking hardwood cuttings.

Vegetables Plant out autumn planting onion sets, shallots and garlic for overwintering. (Wait till the spring as the soil begins to warm for spring planting varieties).

Plant of the Month Hedychium ginger lily

Slightly unusual plant this month, but this Ginger Lily is a fantastic plant for late summer and autumn, a tropical plant that gives your garden an exotic look. The orange flower spikes are also beautifully fragrant.

Position in full sun or partial shade.

Plant the rhizomes into pots using a good soil-based humus-rich, moist compost.

Height about 4 feet.

Flowering period is from August to October.

Hardiness: they are frost hardy but may need winter protection. The rhizomes should be covered in late autumn with a deep dry mulch, or brought inside and kept in a frost-free spot until the spring when they can be planted outside again.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew 24:44-51, Luke 12:40-46

Jesus warned his disciples to be always ready for his return at the end of time
by telling the story of two servants

Mouse Makes

"GOD is the one who gives seed to those who plant, and He gives bread for food. And GOD will give you spiritual seed and make that seed grow. He will produce a great harvest from your goodness."

2 Corinthians 9:10

Look out for seeds in the park and garden and in your kitchen store cupboard.

How many different seeds can you find?

Jesus said:
"The kingdom of heaven is like a _____ seed that a man took and sowed in his field. It is the _____ of all the seeds, but when it has grown it becomes a tree, so that the wild _____ come and nest in its branches."

Read
Matthew
13:31-32

Jesus said:
"You do not need more faith. There is no 'more' or 'less' in faith. If you have a bare kernel of faith, say the size of a poppy seed, you could say to this sycamore tree "Go jump into the lake" and it would do it."
Luke 17:6

So the one who plants is not important, and the one who waters is not important. Only GOD is important because He is the one who makes things grow."
