From the Vicarage

Dear Friends,

As we move into September, the holidays are coming to an end and things start to move again, with the schools, colleges and universities kicking back into action.

On the 14th September, it is Holy Cross Day, which celebrates the cross of our Lord as a symbol of Salvation and Victory. It is also my Sixth Anniversary here, when I was licensed in September 2017. Those middle years of the pandemic were challenging to us all, but as we now go forward into the future, we hope of good memorable times to come.

We begin to start to celebrate Harvest this month and into early October and on 21st September, we remember Matthew the Apostle and Evangelist and on the 29th, we remember Michael and All Angels.

Michael and All Angels on the 29th September, falls near the equinox, this holy day is associated in the northern hemisphere with the beginning of autumn and the shortening of days. It was also one of the English, Welsh, and Irish quarter days, when accounts had to be settled.

Finally, the date for the St Paul's Cathedral Christmas Concert this year is on Thursday 14th December. More information will be advertised nearer the time.

God bless,

Reverend Steven

Wednesday the 9th August at The Othona Community

A tour of Othona with an afternoon tea

For our August meeting, we took a trip down to the Othona community. Despite only being around the corner, some of us had never been, and we were glad we finally did!

We were shown around the grounds by the very knowledgeable Martin, who explained how the community works and was great at answering any questions that we had.

We also met Amanda, who talked us through their different gardens and the variety of things they grow, including fruit, vegetables and herbs in the vast herb garden. The highlight was the peace garden full of bees and butterflies that felt a world away from everyday life.

After our tour, we were led inside for our afternoon tea which was made up of homemade sandwiches, scones and carrot cake! We were joined by some lovely members of Othona that told us more about their day-to-day life there and reminisced with us with stories about Bradwell over the years. We came away feeling very full and very thankful for all the effort that was put into the afternoon and how at home we were made to feel.

Our next meeting is on the 13th September when we'll be joined by Steve Lester for a talk on 'Queen Victoria to Geroge V in an hour'. New members are always welcome so if you have any questions about what we get up to, or if you'd like to come along, you can contact Sue Pirret on 07824696807 or

Bradwell-on-sea

On August 12th the Othona Community Essex held its annual Open Bradwell Centre Committee meeting. Chaired by Revd. Steve Barnes, Trustee Chair at Bradwell, alongside Christopher Jones, Trustee, and Debbie and Richard Sanders, Warden/Managers and resident team member Phil Martin, this was an opportunity for everyone to participate in the essential business that keeps Othona ticking at Bradwell. We were introduced to the resident team members, including current volunteers; and told of vacancies for a volunteer trustee, and the important role of resident Intentional Community team member with a lead in Housekeeping, as advertised on the Othona Bradwell website. We heard of the ongoing survey on Membership of the Othona Community – again available for all, on the website. It would not be a formal Committee meeting without an update on Governance, the legal framework that underpins Othona as a registered Charity, and we were pleased to hear that, once again, Othona Bradwell has achieved a Five Star rating for food hygiene, thanks to the Core Community and volunteers who help keep our kitchen spotless. Communication is also vital for Othona, and the Community is embarking on a Website Revamp to keep us relevant, informative and easily accessible. There was a call to anyone with relevant skills and experience to join the Communications Working Party, as we were reminded how work behind the scenes includes not only hands-on tasks but participation in working groups. To readers of Village View, these calls for involvement in the nuts and bolts of community are for all, whether a longstanding member or a local resident with a little time to give.

Those present at the meeting were given brief updates on improvements in hand, including the renovation of the accessible shower room at a cost of some £15,000 (and how do we finance it?) and the major works necessary to keep our site in good condition including the septic tank replacement, and wind turbine options following the refusal of planning consent for the second turbine. Our Committee asked for comments and observations on this year's programme and ideas for the future; and options for a lively local event at the time when we have traditionally hosted a fireworks display. Finally, we heard an update on our finances – that Othona Bradwell, part of the Othona Charitable Company, is making a small surplus but still owes our umbrella body The Othona Community Trust for the financial advance for recent major, essential electrical upgrades; and money will be needed for any other site upgrades, as well as the essential bursary support for those who could not otherwise afford to stay. The trustees, committee, wardens and resident team members received warm applause and appreciation for all they do to keep Othona alive at Bradwell; with a reminder that we are all part of the one Community and all do our best to help out where we can. And of course, Othona here in Essex and over in West Dorset are great places for a very special “holiday with a difference.” You may already have enjoyed Bradwell’s August programme, joining in the Environment week, Music week with a wonderful concert and refreshments in St Thomas’ Church; Art week, Survival week and A Time to Simply Be, with a great atmosphere, friends reunited and newly arrived people soon becoming part of the “Othona Family.” September may give the team a chance for a bit of a well-earned break, but there is still a lively programme including the Harvest Working Weekend Fri 8th to Sunday 10th September.

All are welcome, as resident or day visitors. For more details of all these events, and activities taking place throughout the autumn too, do phone, email, take a look at our website or pick up a leaflet locally. Debbie and Richard Sanders are our Warden/Managers, tel: 01621 776564.

29th Sept Michael and All Angels

Michael is an archangel, whose name means 'who is like unto God?' He makes various appearances throughout the Bible, from the book of Daniel to the Book of Revelation. In Daniel, he is 'one of the princes' of the heavenly host, and the special guardian of Israel. In Revelation, he is the principal fighter of the heavenly battle against the devil.

From early times, Michael's cult was strong in the British Isles. Churches at Malmesbury (Wiltshire), Clive (Gloucestershire) and Stanmer (East Sussex) were dedicated to him. Bede mentions him. St Michael's Mount in Cornwall was believed to commemorate a vision there in the 8th century. By the end of the Middle Ages, Michael had 686 English churches dedicated to him.

In art Michael is often depicted as slaying the dragon, as in the 14th century East Anglican Psalters, or in Epstein's famous sculpture at Coventry cathedral. Or he is found (in medieval art) as weighing souls, as at Chaldon (Surrey), Swalcliffe (Oxon.), Eaton Bishop (Hereford and Worcester), and Martham in Suffolk. Michael's most famous shrine in western Europe is Mont-Saint-Michel, where a Benedictine abbey was founded in the 10th century.

The 'All Angels' bit of this feast-day was added in 1969 when Gabriel and Raphael were included in with Michael.

21st September St Matthew

Matthew was one of 12 apostles. But he began as a publican i.e. a tax-collector of Jewish race who worked for the Romans, before he left all at the call of Christ. From earliest times, he was regarded as the author of the first of the four Gospels. The Gospel of Matthew is in correct, concise style, very suitable for public reading.

His usual emblem as an evangelist is a man, because his genealogy emphasised the family ties of Christ. In art, he has been represented as either an evangelist or as an apostle. As an evangelist, he has been depicted sitting at a desk, writing his gospel with an angel holding the inkwell. In the Middle Ages he was even given a pair of spectacles.

Matthew was martyred by a sword or a spear, some think in Ethiopia.
