

Robert Clark and Elizabeth Mary Kilvington

This delightful picture believed to be of Robert Clark and Elizabeth Mary Clark (nee Kilvington) was kindly contributed by Rosalyn Greenwood of Knaresborough who is researching family names Clark, Kilvington, Buckle and Elgie.

It was probably taken at the original Ivy Cottage, now demolished, which was next to Sandgate House over the road from the present Ivy Cottage.

They retired here after farming at Brompton Banks farm sometime after the 1891 census. Robert died in 1906 aged 78 and Elizabeth died in 1918 aged 90.

Mrs Hull with her daughter Ann

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Mrs Hull with her daughter Ann pose for the camera outside their General Store at Water End Brompton.

This store was also featured in George Appleby's stories where Danny Hoare and his mother Agatha traded in earlier days.

The postbox in the wall can still be seen to this day although how long the now "privatised" Postal service will empty it is not yet known.

Mrs Sarah Walker at 58 Water End in late 1920's

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Mrs Sarah Walker in the doorway of her house at 58 Water End in the late 1920s. This is one of Colin's favourite photographs as it typifies the working housewife of that era.

Mrs Pollard

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

We think Mrs Pollard is in her work clothes and that she worked at Wilford's mill around the turn of the century C1900.

P.C. George Tiffany

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Brompton village " Bobby " P.C. George Tiffany pictured in 1912 outside his house at Water End

Retta Potter nee Hoare pictured around 1946

This picture and text kindly contributed by George Appleby shows Retta Potter nee Hoare in the doorway of the shop house at Water End.

Number 14 was the shop, 16 the connected shop house and 18 next door where Agatha, her mother, was born in 1882 and lived after retiring from the shop until she died. The photo would be about 1946 when the war ended and films were available again.

Scene outside "Three Horse Shoes" - 1st December 1949

Brompton's 80 year old Telegraph Boy salutes friends outside the Three Horse Shoes inn. Pictured from left to right: MR ROBERT COVERDALE on the bike, Syd Marchant (chauffeur to the Wilfords), Bill Sheffield and Jack Tyreman.

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

Brompton Girl Guides 1926

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

The smartly presented Brompton Girl Guides pose for the photographer in 1926, only known names are that of Hilda Relph 4th row from front 5th from left and her sister Nellie 3rd row from front 3rd from right.

Northallerton Methodist Youth Eisteddfod prizewinners of 1949

(Picture kindly contributed by Alan Stewart and some names and details provided by Alan Stewart and Joyce Boon)

Several of the children in this picture are from Brompton, they are mainly in the middle row. The known names are as follows:-

Second Row, 2nd from left (with paper) is Muriel Gibson, Freda Robinson in dark top, Joyce Boon (with dark hair behind Freda), Pat Dennis (blonde hair face partly hidden), to her left is Sheila Walker and Mabel Laking hiding unknown girl's face at rear and Evelyn Watson on the end with the long hair and white dress.

Third from the left on the front row is Yvonne Lee who was a regular visitor to Brompton. It's possible she was related to Lee's corner shop.

4th from the left on the front row is Emily Outram.

Syd Walker
washes his bus
(1960's)

(Picture kindly contributed by Colin Narramore)

This picture taken probably sometime in the 1960's shows local bus proprietor Syd Walker washing his bus in the ford at Water End.