The Douglas Lounge, Craigiebuckler Church hall

Tuesday 5th Feb 2019

Present: M. Greig, C. Cameron, A. Brown, EE Reporter J. Flett, R. Frost, A. Mitchell, Sargent Simon Lewis-Dalby, K. Reilly, C. Walker, Cllr J. Cooke

Apologies: Cllr J. Stewart, Danna Blyth.

Police Report: Sergeant Simon Lewis-Dalby

Horses at Hayfield Riding School were let out.

If anyone sees any groups of youths please report them to the police, Tel 101

RISK: Hazlehead and Westend Resilience group – Culter has a long standing one. Risk and young people – managing them. Old people at risk, them feeling excluded – know your neighbour, let the police know if you have any concerns regarding vulnerable people in the community.

Saegent Lewis-Dalby feels there is no difference with the control center now no longer being in Aberdeen.

Adoption of the minute of meeting of the 4th December 2018:

Proposed by: C. Cameron

Seconded by: J. Flett

Matters arising from the meeting 4th December 2018

Signing of constitution by the Chair – not doing that – chair still considering, members to read before signing at next meeting maybe AGM

Decision on Date of AGM: Tuesday 5th March, 1930, in Douglas Lounge.

Community Council Training: Jim Flett missed the training and chat from Karen Finch, Jim will contact Karen and arrange, planning training thought to be beneficial as commented by the chair.

Treasurers Report: Cameron reported that he had not received any statements from the bank. On visiting the bank he was told that because there is no traffic on the account they do not give a statement – ever.

Balance: £774.50. Cameron advised that we do not get the next payment from ACC until the accounts are audited and gone to Karen Finch.

Suggestions for spending the money:

Paying the church £15 per meeting and paying this in advance March 2019 – Feb 2020 £150
