I wish I was a fisherman, tumbling on the seas

Far away from dry land, and it's bitter memories

Casting out my sweet line, with a-bandonment and love

No ceiling bearin' down on me, save the starry sky above

With light in my head, you in my arms, woah ho ho

C C G G F F Am Am C C

I wish I was the brake man, on a hurtlin' fevered train

Crashing headlong into the heartland, like a cannon in the rain

With the beating of the sleepers, and the burnin' of the coal

Counting the towns flashing by, in a night that's full of soul

With light in my head, you in my arms, woah ho ho

For I know I will be loosened, from bonds that hold me fast

That the chains all hung around me, will fall away at last

And on that fine and fateful day, I will take thee in my hand

I will ri-ide on the train; I will be the fisherman

With light in my hair, you in my arms, woah ho ho

With light in my head, you in my arms,

With light in my head, you in my arms,

With light in my head, you in my arms,

Woah ho ho
