

Everybody Ought To Play The Ukulele

~~Why don't cha be like me, pick up the ukulele~~

~~And you can play the uku-lele like I do~~

Every-body ought to play the uku-lele

Then you could play the ukulele like I do

You could swing on a star, with your little guitar

Playing music all the Hula ladies do the Hula to

Every-body ought to play the uku-lele

Oh, the world'd be such a happy place to be

Why don't-cha be like me, pick up the ukulele

And you can play the uku-lele like I do
