DATA PROTECTION NOTICE

The General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) define Personal Data as information which directly or indirectly identifies an individual. Examples of Personal Data include name, address, membership number, National Insurance number, date of birth, photo, video or voice recording. GDPR describe individuals who have provided their Personal Data to an organisation (either directly or indirectly) as "Data Subjects". As a Data Subject, you have a number of rights with respect to how organisations process your Personal Data.

Right to be Informed

As a Data Subject, you have the right to be informed of the use that your Personal Data will be put to, along with details of the Data Controller and your rights.

Right to Restrict Processing

Data Subjects have the right to request the charity to stop or restrict the processing of your Personal Data. This could be for example, if your Personal Data is no longer necessary for the purpose of processing.

If you wish to exercise any of your rights, please contact the charity chairperson.

Essex Community First Aid Events Volunteers (ECFAEV) collect and process Personal Data belonging to members and volunteers. Any Personal Data collected will be treated in accordance with current data protection legislation. The data you have provided will be stored securely by the charity secretary. We will use your personal data to communicate with you by SMS, telephone, email or other social media.

Please indicate below your agreement to further uses of your data:

My contact details can be shared with other members/volunteers in order to arrange training sessions and/or attendance at events.
