

CHELMSFORD CHRONICLE – FRIDAY 4 JUNE 1937

EAST HANNINGFIELD

FUNERAL OF MRS. F. BENSON

The funeral of Mrs. Benson, widow of Mr. Frederick Benson, of Claydon's Hall took place at East Hanningfield Parish Church on Saturday, exactly three weeks after the funeral of Mr. Benson at the same place. Mrs. Benson was 77; she was buried in a grave adjoining that of her husband. Canon Ost officiated. Miss E. Barker was the organist at the service which preceded the interment and at which the hymns, "Abide with me," and "For ever with the Lord" were sung. – The mourners were Messrs. Findlow and Cyril Benson, sons; Mrs. H. Towers and Mrs. A. Hamlett, daughters; Messrs. H. Towers and A. Hamlett, and Mrs. F. Benson and Mrs. C. Benson sons-in-law and daughters-in-law; Messrs. Dennis Benson, Fred and Harry Towers and Master Cyril Benson, grandsons; the Misses Joyce, Vera and May Benson, and Rene and Betty Hamlett, granddaughters; Mrs. S. Dutton, niece; Master Harold Dutton, great nephew; Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams (Wigborough) Mr. W. Williams (Birch), Mr. R.H. Beadle, Mr. Eric Trigg, and Miss Marion McCheyne. Others present included Mr. And Mrs. D.W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. P.R. Finlay, Mrs. Francis, Miss D. Francis, Miss Hicks, Mr. H.G. Jackson, Mrs. Knight, Mr. George Mothersele, Mrs. E. Pearl, Mr. T. Rainer, Mr. H.E. Runter, Miss V. Saville, Mr. and Mrs. W. Trigg, Mr. W.E. Trigg, Mr. Gerard Western and Mr. W.J. Wilks. There was a choice collection of floral tributes. – The funeral was furnished by A.J. Andrew and Son, 20 Duke Street, Chelmsford.

EAST HANNINGFIELD

FUNERAL OF MRS. F. BENSON.—The funeral of Mrs. Benson, widow of Mr. Frederick Benson, of Claydon's Hall took place at East Hanningfield Parish Church on Saturday, exactly three weeks after the funeral of Mr. Benson at the same place. Mrs. Benson was 77; she was buried in a grave adjoining that of her husband. Canon Ost officiated. Miss E. Barker was the organist at the service which preceded the interment and at which the hymns, "Abide with me," and "For ever with the Lord" were sung.—The mourners were: Messrs Findlow and Cyril Benson, sons; Mrs H. Towers and Mrs. A. Hamlett, daughters; Messrs. H. Towers and A. Hamlett, and Mrs F. Benson and Mrs. C. Benson sons-in-law and daughters-in-law; Messrs. Dennis Benson, Fred and Harry Towers, and Master Cyril Benson, grandsons; the Misses Joyce, Vera and Mary Benson, and Renz and Betty Hamlett, granddaughters; Mrs S. Dutton, niece; Master Harold Dutton, great nephew; Mr. and Mrs. W. Williams (Wigborough) Mr. W. Williams (Birch), Mr. R. H. Beadle, Mr Eric Trigg, and Miss Marion McCheyne. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Finlay, Mrs. Francis, Miss D. Francis, Miss Hicks, Mr. H. G. Jackson, Mrs. Knight, Mr George Mothersele, Mrs. E. Pearl, Mr. T. Rainer, Mr. H. E. Runter, Miss V. Saville, Mr. and Mrs. W. Trigg, Mr. W. E. Trigg, Mr. Gerard Western and Mr. W. J. Wilks. There was a choice collection of floral tributes.—The funeral was furnished by Messrs. A. J. Andrews and Son, 20 Duke Street, Chelmsford.