Big changes are afoot!

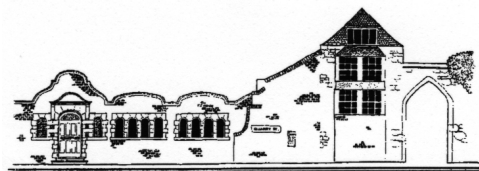

Guildford Museum will be undergoing exciting changes in the next few years. Plans are taking shape to construct a new extension behind the existing building. An entrance from the Castle Grounds will lead to a new exhibition space, café and a new shop. From here, there will be access to the existing galleries.

The old galleries will remain open and the rooms and exhibits will be progressively upgraded and refreshed .

* The earliest evidence for Saxons in Guildford is a 6th century pagan cemetery found in 1929 on the Mount. Two men were buried with glass beakers with pointed bases. Others were buried with iron spears, brooches and beads.

What can YOU do?

Our members will have the chance to be directly involved in supporting the museum during this period of change. Our aim will be to make the most of any skills and interests that you have. Do you enjoy interacting with people face to face or do you prefer working behind the scenes? Do you get a feeling of satisfaction from encouraging the interest of young and old in their surroundings and heritage?
