

What to look for at North Sheen Rec

Birds

Blackbird		Robin
House Sparrow		Starling
Woodpigeon		Feral pigeon
chaffinch		Mistle thrush
Collared dove		Song thrush
Blue tit		Great tit
Coal tit		Long tailed tit
Great spotted woodpecker		Green woodpecker

Wren		Dunnock
Ring-necked parakeet		Crow
Jackdaw		Rook
Jay		Magpie
Pied wagtail		Goldfinch
Redwing (winter only)		Fieldfare (winter only)
Blackcap (spring and summer)		Swallow (summer only)
House martin (summer only)		Swift (summer only)

Gulls visit the Rec in the early morning and late evening –

Black headed gull		Herring gull
-------------------	---	--------------	---

Common gull		Lesser black backed gull
-------------	---	--------------------------	---

Look up while in the Rec and see some birds which regularly fly over

Heron		Canada goose
Egyptian Goose		Cormorant
Sparrowhawk		kestrel

Not sure which bird you have just seen? Visit the RSPB bird identifier at : <http://www.rspb.org.uk/discoverandenjoynature/discoverandlearn/birdidentifier/index.aspx>