

The 12-year-old designer, who spent hours working on his creations, was rewarded with a £10 Amazon voucher by Ray Cox, chairman of the fete committee, who credited Andrew for his help in making the day a success.

He said: "It is the first time we have made an award in recognition of artistic merit and although Andrew might have felt a bit 'sheepish' he deserved some recognition."

Despite the rain on the day of the fete on August Bank Holiday Monday, the crowds turned out to see The Great British Bake Off star Mary Berry open the event and helped to raise around £5000 for local and national charities and organisations.

The money will help:

pre-school groups in Hazlemere and Tylers Green,
Hazlemere Youth Centre Judo Club,
Hazlemere Community Association,
Manor Farm Scouts,
Hazlemere branch of the Royal British Legion,
covering Penn, Tylers Green and Hazlemere, Thames Valley Air Ambulance, and military charities Help for Heroes and the Pilgrim Bandits.
