

One of the organisers, Bob Digby, said: "We couldn't count on the weather, but crowds still came out for Mary. People loved it, the magic moment was the look on the children's faces when they asked Mary to sign their cook books.

Mary Berry officially opens the Hazlemere Fete.

"The fete is about community cohesion, organised by the community for the community."

Around 2,000 people came to the fair, which was raising funds for various charities.
