This bulletin has been set-up on the request of Kingston Interfaith Forum (KIFF) members who wish to share regular notices. All KIFF members have access to this document. Bulletins will be shared on the first Wednesday of the month.

How to add your notices to the bulletin next month

- Simply add your notices to an empty box below by the 25th of each month
- Please keep information short and relevant to the forum members.
(There is no need to edit the blue table of contents, this will automatically update when the bulletin is completed.)

Title of article or notice:	Kingston's Efficient Homes Show
Author	Chris Rimington - Communications & Engagement
Short summary	All residents are invited to attend Kingston's first ever Efficient Homes Show, taking place at Hollyfield School in Surbiton on Saturday 20 May. At the show people can find out about products and services that can help to keep their homes cosy and reduce energy bills while protecting the planet from climate change. The event is free to attend but we'd ask that people book tickets so that we know how many people to expect on the day. Free tickets can be booked on Eventbrite.
Request of the Kingston Interfaith Forum network	It would be greatly appreciated if the information could be shared with contacts.

Title of article or notice:	Bereavement Support Training at All Saints Church Kingston, 19th and 26th July 10am - 4pm
Author	Sanja Djeric Kane - Kingston Voluntary Action
Short summary	This training run by Princess Alice Hospice is aimed at organisations or groups who have been considering a bereavement initiative such as a bereavement café or bereavement walk.

	The training provides participants with the opportunity to explore the experience of loss along with different ways of thinking about bereavement and the grief process. The course includes practical training in Active Listening skills and experiential work on how bereavement can affect a family network. Aspects of running a Bereavement Café or a Walk and Talk event will be discussed, with plenty of time to ask questions and think about what is involved. Kingston bespoke training will take place on 19th and 26th July (you have to attend both days if you are aiming to run a bereavement initiative) at All Saints Church, Market Place, Kingston upon Thames, KT1 1JP. To book a place please contact Joe Moffatt joe@allsaintskingston.co.uk and Cc sue.doherty@kva.org.uk
Request of the Kingston Interfaith Forum network	Kingston needs more bereavement cafes. Please share this information with all the members and other contacts.
