

Kingston Faith and Belief Forum

November 2024 Bulletin - Contents

Remembrance Sunday across the borough

Civic Service of Remembrance at All Saints

Celebrating Black History in Kingston

Faith Talks - Artificial Intelligence - the pros and cons

Help address gaps in bereavement services and support

Title of article or notice	Remembrance Sunday across the borough
Author	Kingston Council
Short summary	Communities are set to join together to pay their respects at Remembrance Sunday events across the Royal Borough of Kingston on Sunday 10 November. Join us in Kingston Town Centre, New Malden, Surbiton and Chessington. On this day we unite across faiths, cultures, and backgrounds to remember the service and sacrifice of our Armed Forces community. The council is committed to the Armed Forces Covenant, a promise by the nation that members of the armed forces will be treated with fairness and respect in the communities, economy, and society they serve or have served.

Title of article or notice	Civic Service of Remembrance at All Saints
Author	All Saints Kingston
Short summary	Services to commemorate Remembrance Sunday
Request of the Kingston Faith and Belief Forum	Please join us or share these services which take place at All Saints Kingston, Ancient Market Place (opposite John Lewis), KT1 1JP. 9.30am Choral Eucharist 10.45am Act of Remembrance at Kingston War Memorial 11.30am Civic Service of Remembrance

Title of article or notice	Celebrating Black History in Kingston
Author	Kingston Council
Short summary	Join at Kingston United Reform Church on 12 November as we come together to celebrate black history in Kingston! 12:15 - 12:30: Arrival and networking 12:30 - 12:40: Welcome, Sam Morrison (Director of Adult Social Care and Health, Kingston Council) 12:40 - 12:50: Cllr Afilaka (Portfolio Holder for Commissioning, Customer Contact and Equalities, Kingston Council) 12:50 - 13:25: Poetry and Storytelling, Michael Groce (Award winning poet and film producer) 13:25 - 14:15: Networking, refreshments and music Date: 12 November From 12:15 - 14:15 Venue: Kingston United Reform Church (Eden Street, Kingston upon Thames, KT1 1HZ). You can find accessibility information for the venue on the AccessAble website.
Request of the Kingston Faith and Belief Forum	Please book your free tickets here - we hope that you will be able to join us.

Title of article or notice	Faith Talks - Artificial Intelligence - the pros and cons
Author	All Saints Kingston
Short summary	You are all invited to the next Faith Talk on Artificial Intelligence at All Saints Kingston, Ancient Market Place (opposite John Lewis), KT1 1JP on Wednesday 20th November 2024, 6.30pm (Bar from 6.15pm)  The poster for the Faith Talks event features the title 'Faith talks' in a large, stylized font, with 'Artificial Intelligence - the Pros and Cons' below it. It includes a speaker profile for Rev Dr Simon Cross, a host profile for Rt Rev Dr Martin Gainsborough, and four panelist profiles: Adam Cantwell-Corn, Rev Ann Drew, and Dr Tim Linsey. The event is scheduled for Wednesday 20th November 2024 at 6.30pm, with a bar opening at 6.15pm. The location is All Saints Kingston. The poster also includes the website www.allsaintskingston.co.uk and social media icons for Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.
Request of the Kingston Faith and Belief Forum	Please share this FREE event and book tickets here

Title of article or notice	Help address gaps in bereavement services and support
Author	Kingston Voluntary Action
Short summary	NHS South West London commissioned Healthwatch Kingston and Kingston Voluntary Action to undertake a South West London (SWL) community engagement pilot project in Kingston about people's experience of bereavement services and support, with a focus on the needs of minoritised communities. As part of a second phase of this work, NHS South West London has recently agreed to a proposal to engage with groups not yet engaged with, to grow learning from more communities across SWL. 13 grants (of up to £1000) are available for community organisations that apply to run face-to-face focus groups within their chosen community. Full details here
Request of the Kingston Faith and Belief Forum	Please review this grant opportunity and share with your communities.