

SCHOOL OF IDEAS

THE ETHICS OF SPINOZA

A taster for the School of Ideas
Philosophy Programme

RHACC

Richmond and Hillcroft
Adult Community College

Spinoza was a leading thinker of the 17th century, and is someone in whom interest has continued to grow, especially from the 19th century onwards.

Join the talk which will look at inter-locking areas of Spinoza's ethical thinking, including:

- Spinoza's view of reality, in relation to his ethical outlook
- definition of human 'freedom,' and how this can be achieved
- the concept of human 'servitude'
- notions of ethical 'good' and 'bad'

This talk is presented by Richmond and Hillcroft Community College and Kingston Philosophy Café courtesy of Tom Rubens.

"Tom is a published Philosophy writer and novelist who teaches at RHACC in the School of Ideas Philosophy Programme".
