

OVRA Policy - General Data Protection Regulation

OVRA only holds the data provided by its members on the membership forms and any permissions provided by a member relating to the use that data. OVRA only use these data for reasons of "legitimate interest" to contact members on OVRA related matters. The membership form has a specific section related to GDPR. Members have the right to request their details held by OVRA for inspection, amendment or deletion; such requests being made through this website's Contact Us facility or directly to any member of the current committee who are listed on their membership card.

This website does not allow those browsing the site to enter information except in the Contact Us section. It does not host surveys or petitions and OVRA does not collect statistical information about visitors to the website