Time to Make a Difference?

Town, Village, Community and Parish Councillors are an essential element of the 'Big Society' and have a long tradition of promoting a sense of pride in the local community

This role should be further enhanced by the national government initiative to modernise local government, making it more accountable to the community it serves

How much time does it take?

Quite often Councillors say that their duties occupy them for about three hours per week. Some Councillors spend more time than this and others less, it depends on their level of involvement

Training

Training can open Councillors eyes to new possibilities, and it is essential that they undertake training to fully partake in their role. A wide range of training for Councillors is available through the EALC

- ◆ Roles & Responsibilities
