

FREE workshops on museum website

e-voice.org.uk/surreyheathmuseum

Worksheets and downloadable presentations

How was washing done before electricity?

H (Victorians and 'in living memory')

Worksheet looking at who the Victorians were and the 'drudgery' of washing before electricity.

What toys did people play with in the past?

S H

A presentation looking at the types of toys children played with in the past. Looking at how materials used in making toys has changed over the years and why.

1960s Camberley

H E C

A workshop giving an overview of what it was like to live in the 1960s through objects (when hiring 1960 discovery box) and photographs.

What animals live in Surrey Heath?

S M A G H

An activity based worksheet looking at the animals that live in the area, their habitats and an introduction to George Edward Lodge.

Art Detectives – Learning to Look

A E M G

A whole class workshop tailored to your classes Art topic. Looking at why artists create and the mediums they use.

How we used to shop?

H M

An activity worksheet investigating shopping of the past, old currency and the changing face of the high street.

The Highwayman Experience (KS2 only)

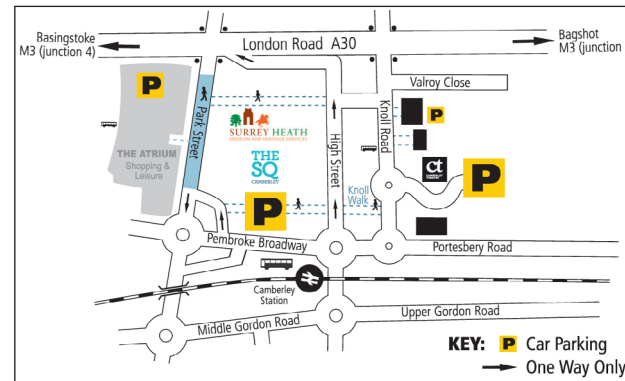

H G E A

Learn about the notorious Highwaymen of 17th century Bagshot Heath. An activity based presentation. (Discovery box required)

WWII Home Front

H E C

Learn about what everyday people were doing in Britain throughout WWII. A fun, activity based investigation. (Discovery box required)

How to find us

- We are based in The Square Shopping Centre, opposite Argos.
- The nearest car park is The Square Shopping Centre. Knoll Road car park is a 10-minute walk away.
- There is a coach drop-off point in Knoll Road (opposite the Civic Offices) with a 5-minute walk to the museum.

How to book

Tel: 01276 23771

Web: www.e-voice.org.uk/surreyheathmuseum

Surrey Heath Heritage Services
33 Obelisk Way
The Square
Camberley
Surrey GU15 3SG
Tel 01276 23771 or
01276 707100 (SHBC)
Email museum@surreyheath.gov.uk
www.e-voice.org.uk/surreyheathmuseum

Free admission
Open Wednesday – Friday 11am–3pm
Saturday by appointment only
(please contact museum for details)
Closed bank holidays

As restrictions lift, further opening days/times for the Museum may be possible, please check the website for up-to-date details

Surrey Heath Borough Council
www.surreyheath.gov.uk

Schools programme

TELLING THE STORIES OF SURREY HEATH

www.e-voice.org.uk/surreyheathmuseum

School/museum based workshops

COVID-19 – There is at least a two-week period between workshop/loan box bookings. All loan boxes contain antibacterial wipes, antibacterial hand gel and handling gloves.

KS1 Workshops 60 mins, up to 32 pupils

Workshop held in the museum £30 per class. Includes a FREE 'The Museum Explorer' activity (max two classes at a time)

Covid-19 alternative Museum led Zoom school workshops with related loan box £30

Workshop held in school £40 per class

What toys did people play with in the past?

S H

A whole class workshop involving:

- object handling
- comparing themselves with children in the past
- discovering different materials
- analysing how and why toys have changed over time
- comparing rich and poor children's toys.

How was washing done before electricity?

H (Victorians and 'in living memory')

A whole class workshop looking at the 'drudgery' of washing before electricity, involving:

- Object handling
- looking at period costume
- role play/miming
- dressing up.

Dino dig

H G S

A whole class workshop looking at what fossils are and how they are created. The session ends with a 'archaeological dig', involving:

- object handling
- looking at real fossils
- creating a 'mold' fossil
- experiencing an archaeological dig.

The Highwayman

© Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler, 2011.
Courtesy of Magic Light Pictures Ltd.
© Orange Eyes Ltd 2017 and Scholastic Children's Books.

E H

Learn about Surrey Heath Highwaymen in relation to the children's book, The Highwayman, by Julia Donaldson. What is fact and what is fiction and how to distinguish between them? Involving:

- dressing up
- role play
- object handling
- learning the difference between fact, fiction and opinion
- life in the past and early transportation
- the Highwaymen of Surrey Heath.

Key to subjects covered

S Science E English A Art G Geography
H History M Music M Maths C Citizenship

KS1 & KS2 Workshops 60–90 mins, up to 32 pupils

Workshop held in the museum £30 per class. Includes a FREE 'The Museum Explorer' session (max two classes at a time)

Covid-19 alternative Museum led Zoom school workshops with related loan box £30

Workshop held in school £40 per class

Local heroes – who am I?

E H M

Choose from either Ethel Smyth – Frimley-based Edwardian composer and suffragette.

Samuel Cody – Farnborough based early 20th-century eccentric aeroplane inventor.

An activity based workshop involving:

- famous local people
 - object handling
 - learning to gather information from objects
 - storytelling, miming and singing
 - group and full class activities.
- Requires four adults per class.

1880s – The life of a domestic servant

(at museum only)

E H

Mrs Raleigh Knight, the wife of Charles Raleigh Knight, the property developer of Camberley, is looking to hire domestic staff. Your class will become the applicants. Learn about Victorian inventions, what it was like to be a servant and so much more in this fully interactive workshop. Includes:

- dressing up
- looking at period costume
- comparing themselves with children in the past
- object handling
- learning about life in the past ('in living memory')
- investigating Victorian inventions.

How we used to shop?

(at museum only)

H M

An interactive workshop involving:

- examining photos of Camberley in the past
- object handling
- problem solving and counting
- role play and dressing up.

Discovery boxes

COVID-19 There is at least a two-week period between discovery box bookings. All loan boxes contain antibacterial wipes, antibacterial hand gel and handling gloves.

Loan a discovery box packed full of objects, ideas and activities to complement your topic.

- Old toys
- First World War
- 1950s Britain
- Highwayman
- Victorian life
- World War Two
- The Stone Age
- Washing Day

KS2 Workshops 90 mins, up to 32 pupils

Workshop held in the museum £30 per class. Includes a FREE 'Explore the Museum' session (max two classes at a time)

Covid-19 alternative Museum led Zoom school workshops with related loan box £30

Workshop held in school £40 per class

Local history detectives – learning to research

H G

Develop research skills to use in the classroom. An activity based workshop involving:

- looking at maps, photographs and archive material
- research skills
- object handling
- questioning skills
- investigating
- local history.

Requires four adults per class.

The Highwayman Experience: fact or fiction?

H G E A

Learn about the notorious Highwaymen of 17th-century Bagshot Heath. An activity based workshop involving:

- role play and performance
- map work
- story telling
- local history
- discussion
- looking at art work
- writing stimulation for further work
- pre- and post-workshop activity ideas
- museum objects.

War Time

H E C

Look at what was happening to the British people living throughout World Wars I and II – both on the front line and back in Blighty. A hands-on workshop involving:

- looking at real war-time artefacts
- dressing up
- what it was like to live in these periods
- Surrey Heath military remnants map
- object handling

Local democracy experience

(at museum only)

H E C A

Meet the Mayor and debate in the Council Chamber. An interactive workshop involving:

- debating
- local democracy
- explore the museum
- craft
- object handling.

