

South West Surrey Compass Designing Democracy for the 21st Century

Neal Lawson, National Chair: Compass

Saturday 4th June 2016, 10am-12pm
(Coffee and Croissants from 9.30am)

Unitarian Church Hall, Meadow, Godalming
(park in Meadow car park opposite the hall, postcode - GU7 3HY)

All are welcome to join in the discussion!

Neal is Chair of the good society pressure group Compass and was author of All Consuming (Penguin, 2009). He serves on the Boards of UK Feminista and We own it!, is a Contributing Editor of the social democracy journal Renewal. He writes regularly for the Guardian and the New Statesman. In the past he worked as a trade union researcher, an advisor to Gordon Brown and ran a communications company.

South West Surrey is an all party/no party local group of people on the progressive left of politics. It meets regularly on Saturday mornings on a quarterly basis and supporters can belong to any of several Research and Action groups on a range of topics, including housing, education, transport, health & social care, the democratic deficit, peace justice & human rights.

See our website for further details:

<http://www.surreycommunity.info/surreycompass>

Visit us on Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/southwestsurreycompass>