

What people say...

“It just broke my heart when I couldn't read to my twin daughters – now I can help them with their homework.” - Sarah, Reader

“I now have more confidence and go to more places, as I find road signs and timetables easier. I am a keen cook and can now shop knowing I can find just what I want. And I'm reading to my daughter!” - Sean, Reader

“This has been one of the most rewarding activities I have ever participated in. It is wonderful to see how constant, steady progress can be achieved with just half an hour, twice a week, and I can think of few other skills you could teach someone that could be more empowering or life-changing.”
- Natalie, Reading Coach

Read Easy
Helping adults learn to read

Do you know someone who struggles to read?

Read Easy provides free and confidential one-to-one reading coaching for adults.

It's friendly, flexible and fun!

What we do

Read Easy volunteer groups support local adults who want to learn to read or improve their reading skills, at their own pace and without pressure.

More than 7%* of adults in England never learnt to read at school. There are many reasons why some people find it difficult to learn to read when they are children, but the really good news is that it's never too late to learn!

Skills for Life Survey, 2011 (Dept. BIS)*

Getting started is easy!

Read Easy will provide those who want to learn to read with a volunteer to help them, special reading manuals to work through, and a place to meet.

Above all, it's confidential, so there is no need for anyone to feel embarrassed.

Who can learn?

Read Easy is suitable for any adult who wants to learn to read or who struggles with their reading. Whatever someone's starting point, each person will be taken back to basics and can then work at their own pace, so there's no pressure.

Who can volunteer to help?

Anyone who can read fluently themselves can apply to become a volunteer Reading Coach with their local group. After an initial selection procedure, volunteers will be given training and then matched up with those who want to learn.

What books will we use?

Read Easy Coaches and their Readers use the phonics-based Turning Pages manuals as their main resource. The manuals are easy to use and, with instructions for the Coach on every page, enable anyone who can read to coach someone else.

The programme also includes lots of reading books, especially written for adults, which can be read alongside the manuals.

Where do we meet?

Readers and their Coaches will be given a choice of places to meet, so that they can choose somewhere that suits them both.

All our reading sessions take place in quiet, discreet venues, so that people can work without being overlooked, but where there will always be other people around.

How long will it take?

Reading sessions last half an hour and take place twice a week. Some people complete the course in as little as a year, while others take more than two years.

Certificates are presented at intervals to recognise progress.

By learning to read, adults improve their employment opportunities, confidence, self-esteem and general wellbeing and are able to support their children's or grandchildren's reading.
