PROGRAMME for Weekend of 10 & 11 October 2009

100th Birthday!

Join in the 100th anniversary celebrations at the Village Hall
All free! - an exhibition of the Hall's history since 1909 and a programme of activities to illustrate the Hall in 2009

Saturday 10th October

10.30 Hall Open

To view the exhibitions and buy Limited Edition Mugs.

11.00 - 11.45 Chamber Music

The Harber Quartet, representing the North Downs Sinfonia, perform chamber music. Take a seat or listen as you view the exhibitions.

1.45 - 2.05 Dog Obedience Display

A demonstration organised by Kaye Scott, who runs dog training classes on Thursday afternoons.

2.15 - 2.30 Little Acorns Concert

The thriving pre-school now holds sessions 2 afternoons a week as well as every weekday morning. The children will stage a short performance of songs. Their art work will be on show throughout the weekend.

2.30 - 3.15 Tea Dance

The ballroom dancers who meet each month for Dave Bishop's popular Tea Dances show off their skills and invite you to join in. Two left feet no problem.

3.45 - 4.30 Line Dancing

Jacqui Tingley and her Saturday evening line dancers invite you to join in. Just as much fun if you've never tried it before.

7.15 for 8.00 100th Birthday Party

Live music by Tony and Stevie, well-known and popular locally for their wide repertoire. Free supper served from a fish and chip van. Prizes awarded for fancy dress, "Heroes & Villains of the last 100 years". Lots to choose from so have a rummage for inspiration. Westerham ale, soft drinks and wine sold at the bar. Also a raffle.

Sunday 11th October

10.30 - 12.45 Sports Tasters

The sports clubs which have been running regular sessions in the Hall for many years set up their equipment and invite everyone to have a go. Absolute beginners are welcome.
