

The Nelson Collection of Images of

Tatsfield

The Nelson Collection of Images of

Tatsfield

William Henry Nelson of Biggin Hill was a professional photographer who took hundreds of pictures of this area between 1903 and 1926.

His grandson, John Nelson, donated his collection of Tatsfield photographs to the Tatsfield History Project in 2008.

The White House, Westmore Green

The Village Centre showing the original Ship and few trees

The Village Centre (2)

THE VILLAGE

TATSTFIELD

The Village Centre (3)

The Parade, the original site of Tatsfield Working Men's Club

Mr Potter's Tea Room , baker & confectioner, refreshments

The Old Ship

The Old Ship. The hunt assembles (1)

The Old Ship. The hunt assembles (2)

The Old Ship. The hunt assembles (3)

The Old Ship in 1906

Ship Hill then, an unmade road (1)

Ship Hill then, an unmade road (2)

Tatsfield Church, before the porch was built (1)

Tatsfield Church, before the porch was built (2)

Tatsfield Church Inside

The junction of Church Hill, Chestnut Avenue and Clarks Lane, all unmade
(note the board advertising development on Chestnut Avenue)

Chestnut Avenue

Clarks Lane towards Westerham

'School Corner' and Old Lane with Hitchcock's Yard

‘School Corner’ and Tatsfield Green with few trees

Park Farm, the original farmhouse

Sunny Bank, Old Lane (1)

Sunny Bank, Old Lane (2)

THE Woods

The Woods

The Manor House seen across the valley from Paynesfield Road

The Manor House

VIEW FROM RICKETTS HILL

TATEFIELD

John's Road visible from Ricketts Hill Road

View from Ricketts Hill Road of Ninehams and Paynesfield Road

Maybe another view of John's Road but a note from someone suggested
It's a view of Ricketts taken from Polesteeple Hill

VIEW FROM PAYNESFIELD RD

TATSFIELD

The northern end of Paynesfield Road looking up to where it joins with Ricketts Hill Road

This could either be a view of John's Road or perhaps Ricketts Hill taken from Polesteeple Hill?

View from Ricketts Hill

KEMSLEY ROAD

TATFFIELD

Kemsley Road (1)

KEMSLEY RD TATSFIELD

Kemsley Road (2)

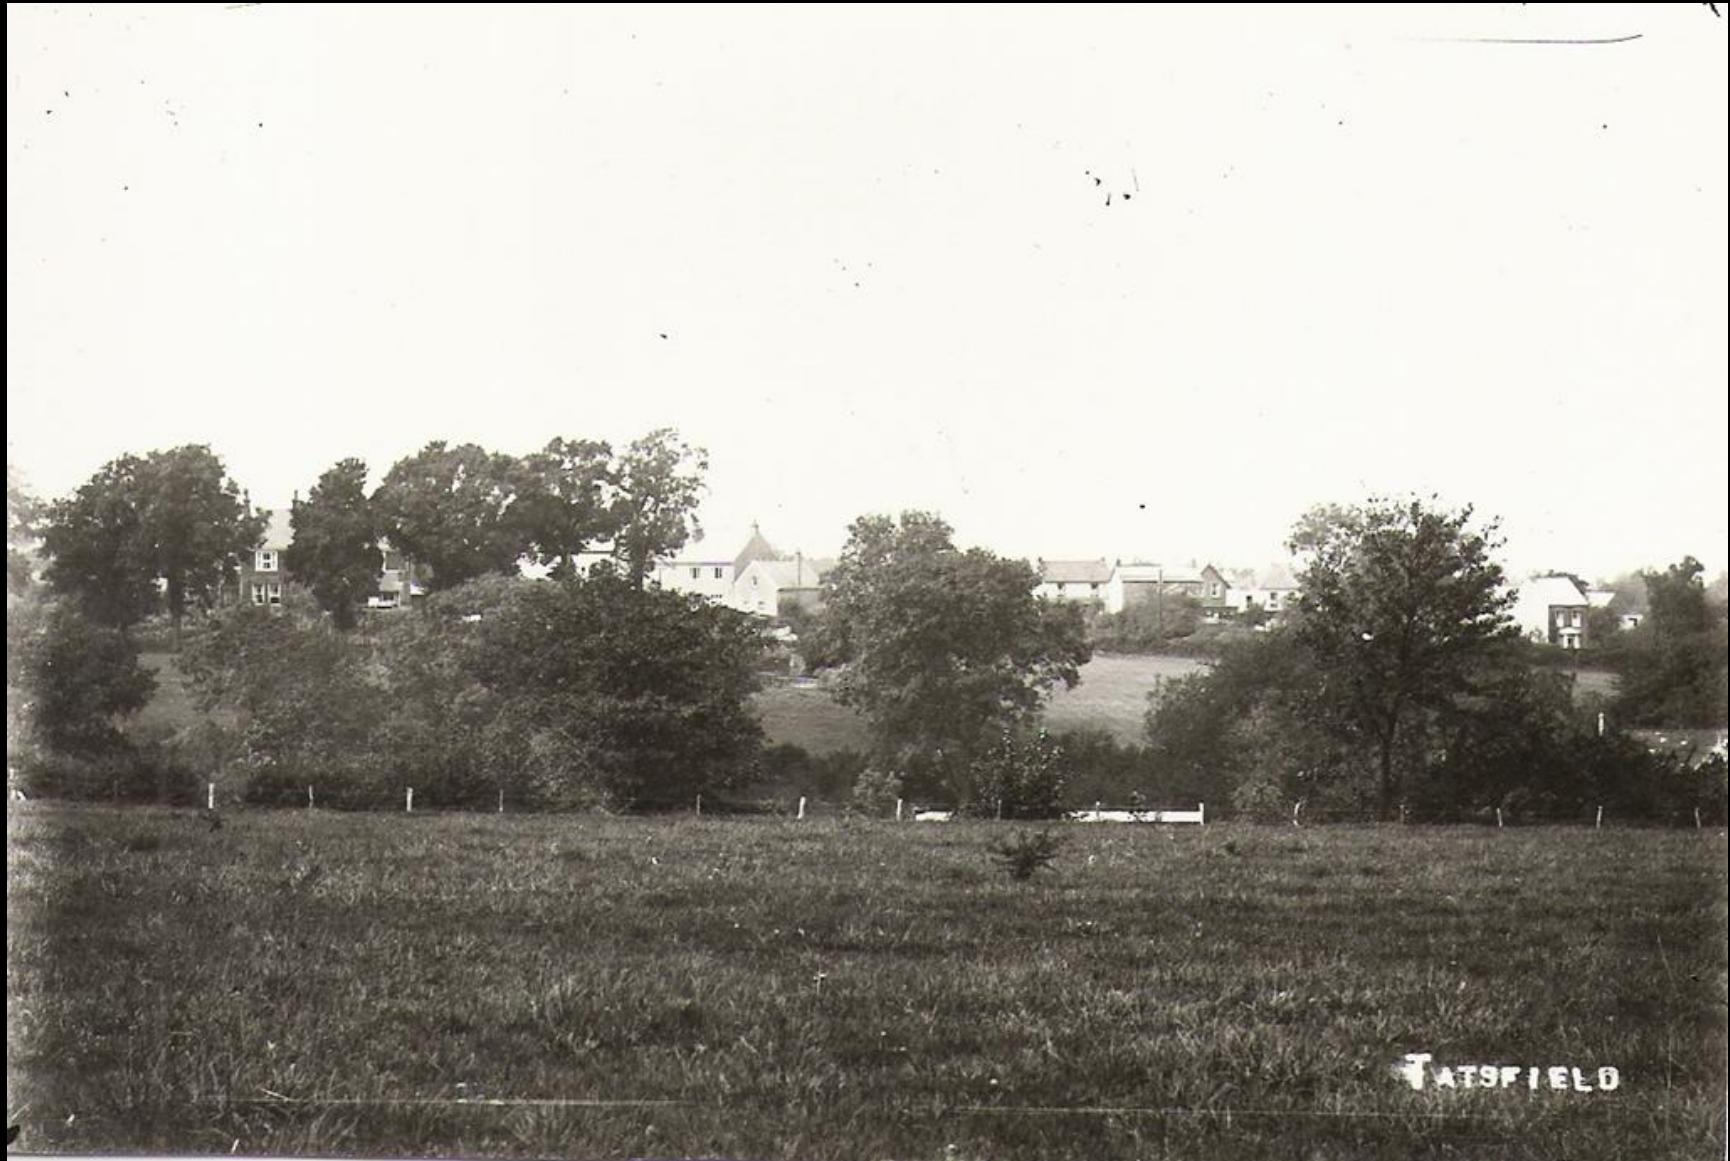

Kemsley Road (3)

Kemsley Road, Beulah Mount

Oaklands, 81 Paynesfield Road

Tatsfield from Maesmaur Road

Junction of Titsey Hill and Pilgrims Way. St James' Church behind the trees

The original Hillview House, Paynesfield Road

The Red House, Ricketts Hill Road

The Red House, Ricketts Hill Road, from the rear

The Briars, Ninehams Road

Mrs Jones at But An Ben, Ricketts Hill Road (1)

Mrs Jones at But An Ben, Ricketts Hill Road (2)

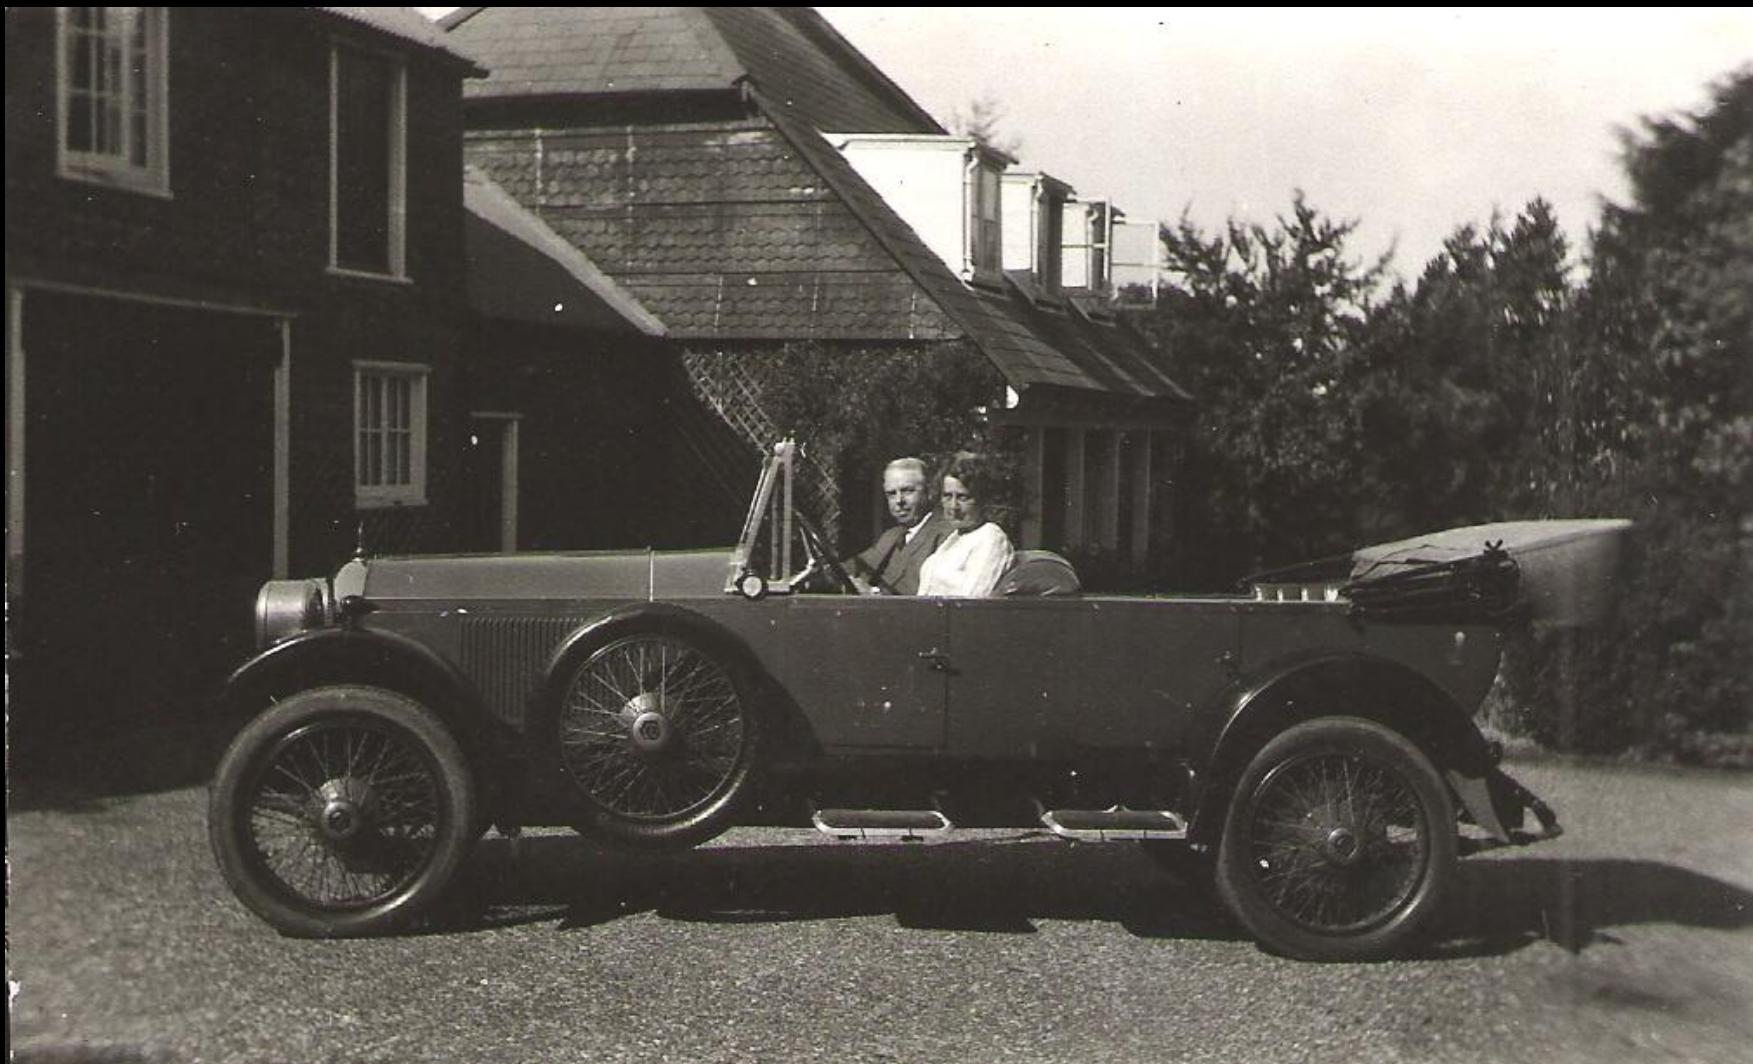

Mrs Jones at But An Ben, Ricketts Hill Road (3)

Mrs Jones

Etheldene School, Ricketts Hill Road . Miss King & Miss Horsey

Fir Tree Farm or Firs Farm, Ricketts Hill Road. Paige family? (1)

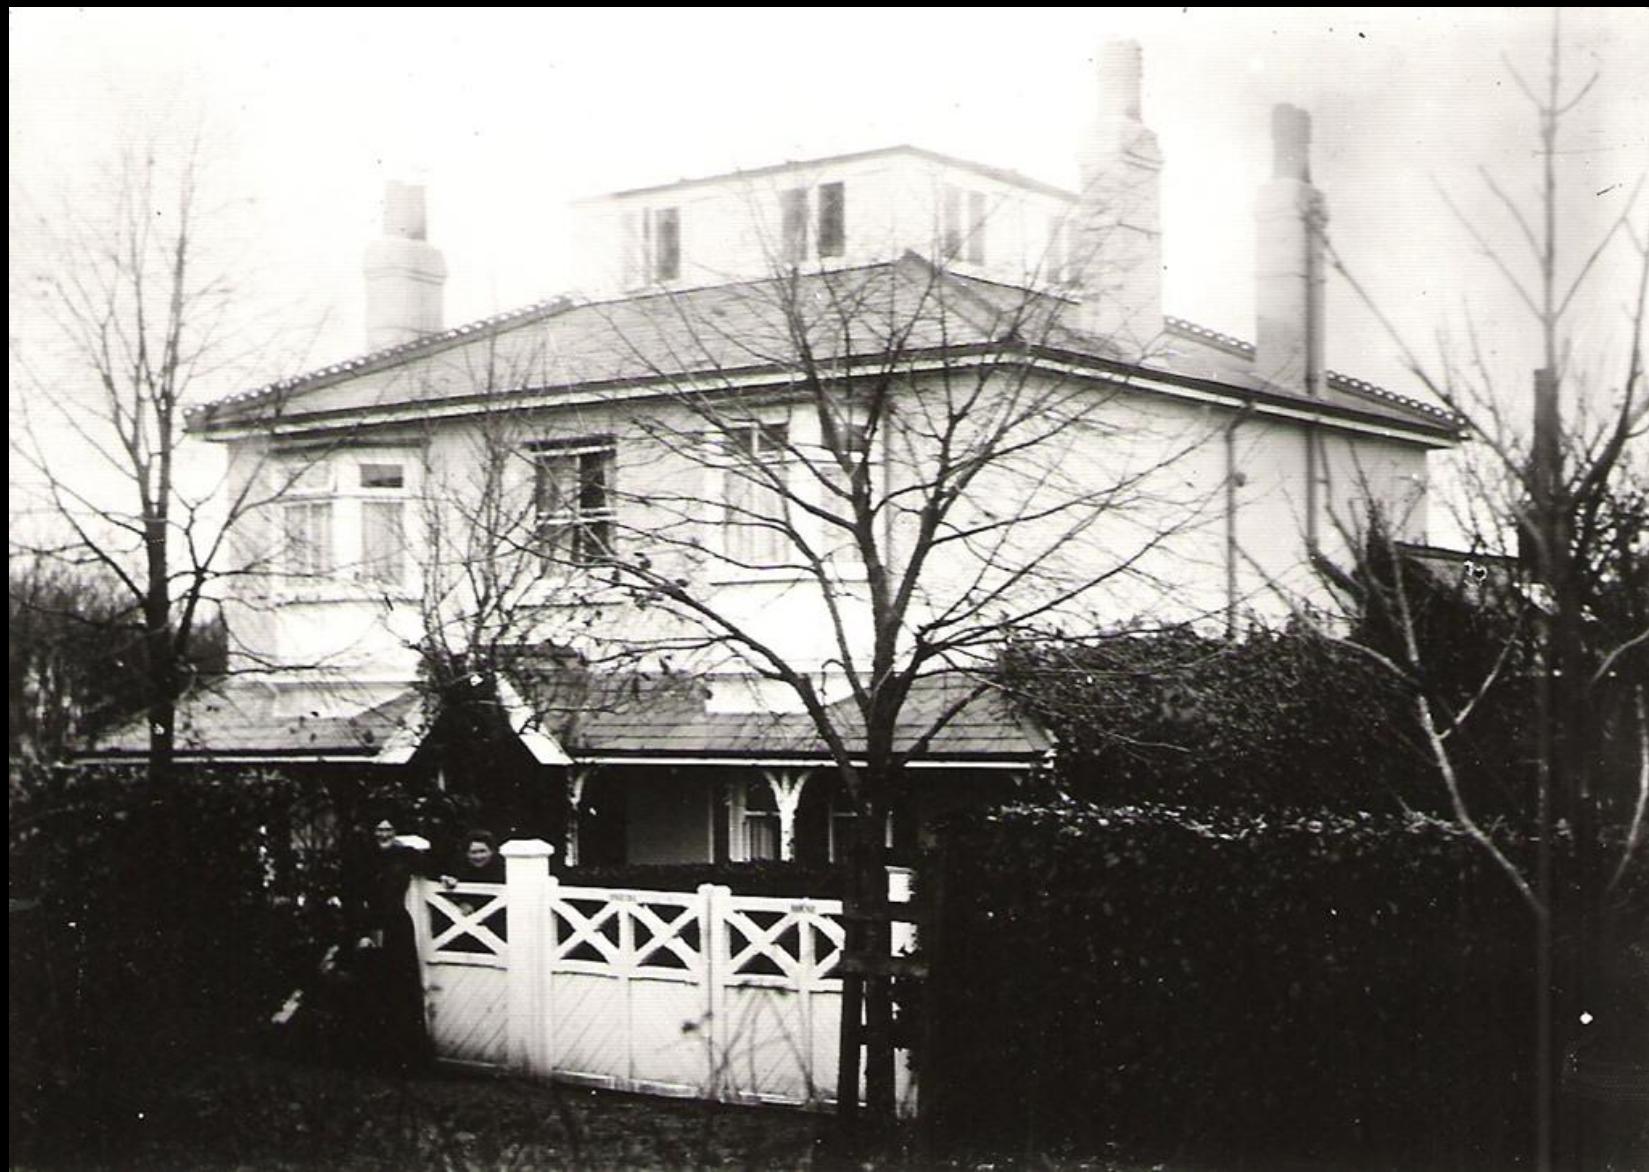

Fir Tree Farm or Firs Farm, Ricketts Hill Road. Paige family? (2)

Fir Tree Farm or Firs Farm, Ricketts Hill Road. Paige family? (3)

Fir Tree Farm or Firs Farm, Ricketts Hill Road. Paige family? (4)

Oneida House, Hillside Road

Tatsfield Cottage, Ricketts Hill Road

Beech View, Ricketts Hill Road

Unknown cottage. Ricketts Hill Road perhaps?

Barnfield Road. Possibly Holly Cottage but it doesn't match what's there now

Possibly the Field family who ran a shop in Emily, now Westmore Road

The Wendy House, Paynesfield Road (1)

The Wendy House, Paynesfield Road (2)

The Wendy House garden, Paynesfield Road

The Wendy House pond, Paynesfield Road

A cat at Etheldene, Ricketts Hill Road

WESTMOOR GREEN, TATSFIELD.

Moore Photographer Tatsfield. Surrey.

Moore was recorded as a stationer and photographer in directories in 1905 and 1907. There's a copy postmarked 1905 and it appears that the same picture was taken before the Bakery was built.

All photos supplied by Ian Mitchell from the Tatsfield History Project

This eBook is a
Biggin Hill – Then and Now
Compilation.

W: bigginhill-history.co.uk
E: bigginhill.thenandnow@gmail.com