

The Mandeville Autumn Newsletter

Introduction

Welcome to the 16th edition of our Quarterly Newsletter.

We are pleased to report that the redecoration of the Main Hall, Stage, Front Lobby and all the Toilets was completed ahead of schedule. Our thanks go to Neil Rook for an excellent job and for all those 'while you're here' little extras. We also had a complete review of our electricians to ensure we meet current safety requirements. We now have a TV/DVD player in the Community Hall for our Bytes Cafe customers and this is also available for small group meetings to show video or for Powerpoint presentations. Finally, we have this week seen the long awaited repair to the tarmac outside the Community Hall entrance.

The hall provided the venue for 2 wedding receptions and feedback has been most encouraging. We believe we can provide an excellent facility and hope that wedding receptions will feature regularly in the future. The Summer Concert performed by the Sawtry Chorale was well received despite numbers attending being lower than expected which may have been due to late marketing of the event. Kimbolton Fireworks have made a return visit to provide a staff training day.

We now look forward to a packed programme over the next quarter. Our film programme can be found on page 2. On Saturday 13 October the Kimbolton Royal British Legion are holding a lunch followed by entertainment provided by the Caverners. Two weeks later on 26 October the Lamphouse Theatre based in Peterborough will be presenting their Peter Pan performance, see page 3 for more details. This year our Children's Christmas Party should be the best yet as funding is already well ahead of schedule thanks in part to your support in both contributing and purchasing DVD's. To date this initiative has raised almost £150, please keep looking and let's make it up to £200! Many weekends are now booked for private parties, if you are looking for a great venue at a reasonable price please contact our bookings secretary to check on availability.

1918 Commemoration

Our plans for the commemoration of the end of World War 1 are now well advanced. It will Remember, Commemorate and Celebrate the year 1918. We have been successful in obtaining 10 silhouettes which will be dispersed around the village. There is a varied programme including songs from the time, dance and poetry performed by an enthusiastic local cast spanning 70 years. This is a free ticketed event and more information on how to obtain tickets will follow.

LOOKING FURTHER AHEAD

Our Christmas film this year is 'The Greatest Showman'. The film is inspired by the story of P.T. Barnum's creation of the Barnum & Bailey Circus and the lives of its star attractions. The film stars Hugh Jackman, Zac Efron, Michelle Williams and Rebecca Ferguson. At the end of January we have lined up a Queen tribute band. Tickets will be on sale from October 1 and are priced at £12.50 each. This is sure to be a sell out and to avoid disappointment early booking is recommended.

We have scheduled the refurbishment of the Main Hall floor to be completed during the Christmas break. This will then complete the works in the Main Hall

Genre: Drama Directed By: Mike Newell, Thomas Bezucha, Don Roos

"Mike Newell's adaptation of Mary Ann Shaffer and Annie Barrows's epistolary novel is a film you don't spend time with so much as spend time in: every location in this irresistible romantic mystery is like a little mini-break for the soul, every costume and piece of set-dressing nibble-ably gorgeous, and every character a pleasure to keep company with, even the rotters." THE WICKERMAN

Friday 20 October

Thriller, fantasy or musical. art house film or horror flick? undisputed cult classic. Call it what you will, there's no doubt that The Wicker Man is a truly great film. In the words of director Robin Hardy, 'there has never been a film like this' - and there probably never will.

The Wicker Man is a 1973 British mystery horror film. It stars Edward Woodward, Britt Ekland, Diane Cilento, Ingrid Pitt, and Christopher Lee. The screenplay centres on the visit of Police Sergeant Neil Howie to the isolated island of Summerisle, in search of a missing girl. Howie, a devout Christian, is appalled to find that the inhabitants of the island have abandoned Christianity and now practise a form of Celtic paganism.

Cinefantastique described it as "The Citizen Kane of horror movies", in 2004 Total Film magazine named The Wicker Man the 6th greatest British film of all time. It also won the 1978 Saturn Award for Best Horror Film and during the 2012 Summer Olympics opening ceremony the film was included as part of a sequence that celebrated British cinema. Apparently Christopher Lee's desire to walk away from Dracula was so great that he reportedly agreed to play the starring role of Lord Summerisle for free. Lee declared The Wicker Man to be "the best film I've ever been in, the best part I've ever had. And—not that I'm a judge at all—the best performance I've ever given."

What the audience thought of Peter Pan:

Peter Pan at The Place in Bedford was, simply, outstanding. Physical, dynamic, very funny, fresh and imaginative - I brought along my five-year-old twins (one of which has Asperger's) and they were captivated.

We shall be looking out for your future work and will make every effort to attend: can't wait to see what you tackle next and to enjoy your splendid energy, charm and charisma once again.

Julia Simmons-Collar

Wow!!! It was absolutely wonderful. So funny and ever so well done with just a cast of 3. I have never laughed so much in my life. All my family enjoyed it including my two girls aged 12 and 9. I would definitely recommend watching this performance and will be looking out for more in the future. The cast were fabulous and the improv was so funny. It was a pleasure to watch. Well done guys !!!

Natasha Dalliday

Absolutely outstanding show in terms of energy, creativity and fun. The laughter flowed in equal amounts from adults as well as children. Had to go down and shake their hands at the end of the show. Loved them so much - will keep an eye out for future performances.
