

DANGEROUS WOMEN IN FILM NOIR AND BEYOND

THE PORTCULLIS
TRUST

RHACC

Richmond and Hillcroft
Adult Community College

The world of cinema has given us a galaxy of female stars – both beautiful and dangerous from the smouldering Noir seductress to the modern-day action heroine.

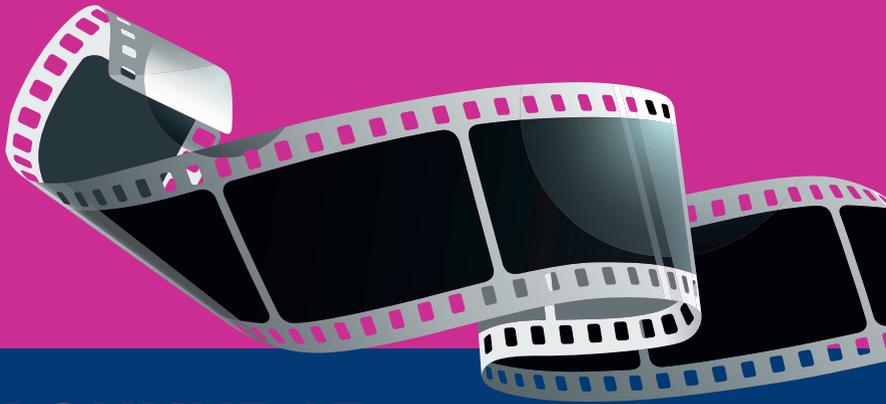

Join Dr Andrea Rinke formerly Senior Lecturer in Film Studies at Kingston University explores how and why stars continue to glitter today, and what makes the dangerous woman in film so fascinating.

Thursday 26 September, 7.30pm – 9pm

RHACC, Queen Charlotte Hall Theatre, Parkshot TW9 2RE

Tickets £10 online or on the door

Proceeds from this event go towards supporting disadvantaged learners at RHACC. Your support is appreciated.
