ESSEX POLICE NOTICE

DWELLING HOUSE BURGLARY

Essex Police ask "Do you recognise this man?" We want to speak to him in connection with a burglary in Berden north west Essex. The victim, a woman aged in her 60s, challenged two men about identification when they knocked at her home at midday on 24 September. They claimed to be from the council's pest control department. They made their way into her house by pushing her to the floor, and left shortly afterwards. Nothing was taken.

One of the men, illustrated in the e-fit, is described as being of heavy build and around 5ft 10ins tall. He is believed to be in his late 50s.

The second man was described as white, of slim build, and taller than the first man. He also had short, dark hair. He is believed to be in his 30s.

Anyone with information about the identities of these men is urged to report it to Braintree CID.

You can do this via our website or by calling 101.

The crime reference number to quote is 42/154419/20.

If you would prefer to remain anonymous, you can call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

NEWSLETTER EDITORS'S COMMENTS:-

YES in this week's newsletter there was a dwelling house burglary many miles from Braintree District.

Sadly people who commit crimes do not have boundaries and we, as Neighbourhood Watch, should continue to remind everyone to be vigilant.

I believe that we are very good at reducing the fear of crime as well as the opportunity of crime.

Please ensure those who may feel vulnerable that they know they should not open doors to anyone they do not expect at any time.

Give them a Nominated Neighbour Card so YOU can be called to visit them and meet any unexpected visitors to check their credibility.
