NOTTINGHAM KNOCKERS

BRAINTREE

A number of homes had a visit from a so called "Nottingham Knocker" this week which caused some consternation/anger as he was rude/ aggressive to some householders.

A local resident contacted the Police who came out to talk to him & get his particulars.

It is important that such callers must have a Pedlars Licence signed by at least an Assistant Chief Constable if they are requesting payment on the day for any items.

A copy of a Pedlars Licence can be available on request. Please do not open the doors to people you do not expect and if anyone feels vulnerable to use the Nominated Neighbour Card which is FREE (with instructions).

If any person needs a Nominated Neighbour Card please send an email to braintreenwsg@btinternet.com with your full postal address.
