CYBERHOOD WATCH

National Neighbourhood Watch has been launching Cyberhood Watch. Please see attached with this newsletter the leaflet promoting Cyberhood Watch which I know you will find useful to distribute to all your members. If you would like the above window sticker ,which faces you in your home or car - it will act as a reminder to take care when on the internet, please send me your name and address and they will be posted to you. Cyber crime needs to be brought to everyone's attention more than ever and you could consider how to keep safe on the internet on your Ipad, Laptop, computer or smart phone also you can help others to do the same.

You may like to know that this week The Eastern Cyber Resilience Centre has a new board member who is Roger Hirst, our Essex Police Fire & Crime Commissioner who advises that : "Cybercrime is often perceived as a victimless crime, but it is absolutely not. I'm pleased to be joining the ECRC Board and playing my part in helping to make cyberspace a safer place for all."
