BRAINTREE

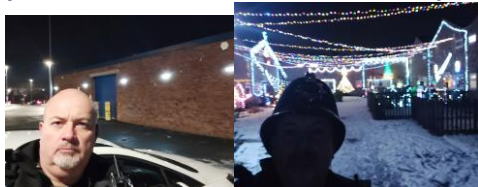

Whilst our Essex Roads Policing Team were out on patrol the other night, this vehicle failed to see them in a marked police car and pulled out in front of them. The driver then travelled at 40 mph in a 30 mph limit along The Street, Hatfield Peverel. The driver was stopped and spoken to by the Officers. Despite claiming to be a chauffeur he was driving without insurance and the car was seized.

WITHAM

December 8th 08:43hrs

Patrols with Eastlight Community Officer to check for anti-social behaviour, vehicle checks on Haygreen Road, two children and parents warned due to their child's behaviour around local residents and provided visibility and reassurance in Morrisons car park

December 14th 18:20hrs A very cold foot patrol on Templars Estate but the lights brightened up the dark corners. A concern on Humber Road, another at the train station, an intruder alarm at a local business and a domestic related incident. Busy but enjoyable shift.

December 17th 17:26hrs

Lovely comments of my visibility in the town centre. I provided reassurance for a resident who was concerned over rogue builders, collected knives for disposal, carried vehicle checks and patrols around frozen waterways

THEFT OF A DIGGER

RAYNE The Street

Between Dec 5th & December 9th

Suspects unknown broke the lock to a secure yard and stole a yellow Volvo EC25 Digger serial number 8119613 valued at £209,000
