THEFTS FROM PERSONS AND BOGUS CHARITY COLLECTOR

SUDBURY Police are appealing for witnesses after a bogus charity collector stole money from a man and took place at noon on Thursday 8th June at the junction of Station Road and Great Eastern Road, near the pedestrian access to Waitrose.

A woman claiming to be collecting money for a charity helping the deaf approached the man, who was in his 70s, and asked for a donation. After he handed over some money, she distracted him by giving him a hug and took a quantity of bank notes from his wallet.

The woman is described as around 5ft 8ins tall, carrying a clipboard, wearing a facemask and long clothing.

Anyone who has information, images or footage which could help the inquiry is asked to contact Suffolk Police
