BRAINTREE DISTRICT COUNCIL FLY TIPPING PROSECUTION

On 2nd November 2023, a 39-year-old businessman from Great Notley was sentenced at Colchester Magistrates Court for two offences of fly-tipping. Braintree District Council Street Scene Protection Team had been alerted to fly-tips in the area and put up CCTV.

The man was subsequently captured on camera fly-tipping builders' waste onto a public footpath in Bradwell.

He had entered a guilty plea at a previous hearing and appeared before the court for sentencing, where he was fined £3,231, ordered to pay a victim surcharge of £190 and pay the Council's costs of £4,399.30.

Councillor Tom Cunningham, Cabinet Member for Transformation, the Environment and Customer Services, and Deputy Leader at Braintree District Council, said: "When it comes to fly-tipping, we take a zero-tolerance approach. We investigate all incidents to look for evidence to try and hold the individuals to account for their irresponsible action. "I am pleased that on this occasion, we secured a positive outcome to the offences that were committed, demonstrating that we take things seriously and the fines issued by the court will help to deter similar offences from being committed."
