NEW CHIEF CONSTABLE CANDIDATE ANNOUNCED

Rachel Nolan has been named as the preferred candidate to become Chief Constable of Essex Police, following a full selection process.

Rachel joined Essex Police in 1998 in Castle Point District/Canvey Island and has worked her way up through every rank over the past 27 years.

She is currently Deputy Chief Constable and brings a wide range of operational and leadership experience, both locally and nationally.

Her appointment will be confirmed at a Police, Fire and Crime Panel hearing.

If approved, she will take over from Chief Constable BJ Harrington and continue leading the force's work to prevent crime, protect communities and deliver a high standard of policing across Essex.

CRIMESTOPPERS IN ESSEX

Crimestoppers is an independent charity which takes information about crime anonymously, online or by phone.

We don't take names or any identification, just listen to what you know and pass it on securely, 100% anonymously. There's no police contact, no witness statements, no courts. Information is taken in more than 150 languages.

Online forms at www.crimestoppers-uk.org and calls on 0800 555 111 are untraceable. Calls won't show on phone bills. We're open 24/7, 365 days a year. Crimestoppers passed over 7,500 crime reports to Essex police last year. See how it works at <https://youtu.be/TV5k3QFBI3U>
