DWELLING HOUSE BURGLARIES

FELTWELL Hall Farm Close

Sunday 20th October

Suffolk Police are appealing for information following two burglaries.

The incidents took place when an offender(s) entered two properties.

At one property, at 7:20 hrs. a man armed with what was believed to be a crow bar was found in a downstairs room, having entered the property through an insecure door.

After being disturbed by the householder, the suspect fled the scene.

A Louis Vuitton handbag, Bulgari sunglasses, and a wallet containing bank cards and a quantity of cash were taken.

In the second property, sometime between 5.00hrs and 7:26hrs. an offender(s) entered the empty property through an insecure door, and carried out an untidy search. No items were taken.

Anyone who may have witnessed suspicious activity in the area at the time, or anyone with information is encouraged to contact DC Andrew Flitney at King's Lynn police station on 101, quoting crime number 36/73722/19.
