ROBBERY

NEEDHAM MARKET/STOWMARKET Junction 51/50

Saturday 29th February 16:00hrs

Officers received a call reporting that the driver of a white Ford Transit van had been assaulted and had his wallet stolen after pulling over in a layby on the A14 westbound.

The suspect is described as being a white male around six foot tall, and of a stocky build, wearing a dark coloured baseball cap, black hooded top and black trousers. He was driving a white or grey coloured van.

The victim, who was in his early 20s was kicked in the stomach, sustained no visible injuries, just pain and discomfort.

Police are appealing for witnesses who were travelling on the A14 between Needham Market and Stowmarket who may have witnessed the incident or have dashcam footage to contact Bury St Edmunds CID quoting crime reference 37/12865/20.
