Hello fellow gardeners. Here is our latest information update!

Teamwork in Action! Volunteers Transform Allotment Entrance

Community spirit was alive and well last month as a fantastic group of volunteers came together to improve the Northeastern entrance between the Allotments and Knighton Field. Huge thanks go to Ben Jefferis, Jez Slade, Pete Bromley, Dave Wearing, Lynne Bishop, and Tony Byatt for rolling up their sleeves and making a real difference!

They repaired the gate, so it now opens and closes smoothly and safely; they renewed the fencing on either side, making the entrance more secure and they boxed in the communal apple trees to make mowing easier and help protect them from strimmer damage.

In March wood chip was added to the boxes to help keep the weeds at bay, and the trees are looking in great shape!

Thank you again to our brilliant team, led by Plot Steward Jan Jefferis, for their hard work and dedication. The difference you've made is truly appreciated! (Photos courtesy of Jan)
